Rally to Showcase the Culture of Assam

To celebrate the idea of India as a nation wherein to establish state to state connect, the students of IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur showcased the culture of Assam by the means of a rally on 14th February 2020 under 'Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat' programme. The main objective behind this activity was showcasing the rich culture and heritage of Assam to students of Rajasthan to inculcate the innate chord of binding and brotherhood, subsequently fostering a sense of common identity within the diversity. The rally begun after flagging off by the Registrar of IIS (deemed to be University), Dr. Raakhi Gupta. A total of 185 students participated in rally with full excitement and enthusiasm. Approximately 25 students dressed up in Assamese attire, moved rhythmically in a set of steps to the Assamese dance- Bihu which they learnt from Assamese students of the university. Rest of the students were asked to carry posters related to Assamese culture, food, clothes, biodiversity, religion and sports. After taking a round of the campus they showcased their Bihu dance on stage in front of all the students and faculties of the University. At the end the Vice Chancellor of the University- Dr. Ashok Gupta, joined the activity and appreciated the efforts of students.

मातृभाषा दिवस

भाषाएँ केवल अभिव्यक्ति का माध्यम नहीं, सांस्कृतिक गौरव की भी वाहक होती हैं। विभिन्न भाषाओं का ज्ञान हमारी अभिव्यक्ति को अधिक प्रभावशाली बनाता है। खासकर लोकभाषाओं के पास मुहावरों व लोकोक्तियों का असीम भण्डार है जो उनके कथन को सशक्त बनाता है। लोकभाषाओं की शब्द सामर्थ्य का अनुमान इससे ही लगाया जा सकता है कि राजस्थानी भाषा में ऊँट के लिए ही चार सौ से अधिक पर्यायवाची हैं, तो विक्रमी कलेण्डर के हर महीने में बरसने वाले बादलों के लिए एक अलग नाम है पर अत्यन्त खेद का विषय है कि दुनिया में इस समय प्रचलन में मौजूद करीब सात हजार भाषाओं में से आधी भाषाओं पर इस सदी के अंत तक लुप्त हो जाने का खतरा मंडरा रहा है। ऐसी स्थिति में हर संवेदनशील व्यक्ति का यह कर्तव्य है कि वह अपनी मातृभाषा को बचाने का दायित्व निर्वहन करे। यूनेस्को ने भी 21 फरवरी को अंतर्राष्ट्रीय मातृभाषा दिवस के लिए चुना।

मातृभाषा अर्थात् वह भाषा जिसे अपने परिवेश में सुनते और बोलते हुए एक बच्चा बड़ा होता है। मातृभाषा दिवस हम सबको एक मौका देता है कि हम अपनी-अपनी मातृभाषा की ताकत को पहचाने, कन्हैया लाल सेठिया का निम्नलिखित दोहा मातृभाषा के महत्व को दर्शाता है—

Conference of Ministry of Minority Affairs on Awareness Spread and Strengthening of Minority Welfare Affairs

A two-day conference of Ministry of Minority Affairs, Government of India, New Delhi, on Awareness Spread and Strengthening of Minority Welfare Affairs was organized at the IIS (Deemed to be University) on 6-7 January 2020. The conference witnessed the graceful presence of eminent dignitaries Smt. Mamta Bhupesh, State Minister of Women & Child Welfare Department, Government of Rajasthan and Dr. Subhash Garg, Minister, Technical Education, Government of Rajasthan as the chief guest of the conference. Prof. B. P. Singh, Chairman, Delhi School of Professional Studies & Research (DPSR), Mr. Shakeel Ahmad, District Minority Welfare Officer, Mr. Mohinuddin Khan, Prof. Seema Kumari, and Dr. R. S. Singh were invited as the resource person for various sessions. The conference was carved out with the design of bringing together the resources and special scholarship schemes available to the minorities and apprising the students on the same. About 107 students were benefited from the discursive four technical sessions spanning over two days.

The first day of the conference commenced with the lighting of the lamp invoking the divine spirits for the inaugural session. Reverent dignitaries Dr. Ashok Gupta, Vice-Chancellor, IIS (Deemed to be University) and Dr. Raakhi Gupta, Registrar, IIS University greeted the guests with a memento and stole. Dr. Ashok Gupta heartily congratulated the ministry of minority affairs on bringing in such a conference and presented a warm welcome address. Prof. B.P. Singh, Chairman, Delhi School of Professional Studies and Research (DPSR), New Delhi apprised the gathering on the aims and intent of conducting this two-day conference. He approached his idea by discussing the term minority in detail as "less in number" focusing on the unaware youth and the academic and entrepreneurial opportunities available to the students belonging to the minority group. The inaugural address was delivered by Smt. Mamta Bhupesh, State Minister of Women & Child Welfare, Government of Rajasthan wherein she explained that the endeavors of the state government are congruent and consistent with the growing tendencies empowering women in Rajasthan. She applauded the spirit of an Indian girl child who has all the potential to work hard even in adverse situations and achieve their goals in life. She thereby promised to help them to carve a lucrative career to build a vibrant nation.

Mr. Mohinuudin Khan counseled the young minds that to provide equal status to these minorities special privileges have been accorded in our constitution but we still need to actively participate to reap maximum benefits of them. In order to legitimize further Dr. Archana Gupta, Head, Department of Political Science, IIS University ran an interference on constitutional provisions regarding minority affairs wherein she familiarized the assemblage on Article 38-social, economic, political welfare, Article 39- free legal assistance, Article 46- educational and economic advancement, Article 49- protection of monuments and Article 51- international treaties.

The first technical session by Dr. Seema Kumari on Economic Development and Women Empowerment focused on women's sense of self-worth and their right to have access to opportunities and resources in our society to ensure the Sustainable Development country. The further discussed the self-employment schemes like Seekho aur Sikhao, Nayee Manzil, Nayee Roshni and Usttd in detail. They reinstated that these skill development courses are solely linked with the placement of minorities and target the youth of 14-35 years age group. They assured the audience of the schemes being established by Project Implementing Agencies (PIA), selected by the Ministry of Minority Affairs, Govt. of India.

The Second session delineated on educational development emphasized the significance of a population adequately equipped with the knowledge to support the economic growth of a nation. The resource person for the session rationalized the ideas of the Ministry of Minority Affairs, Govt. of India through Naya Savera, Nai Udaan, Padho Pardesh, Scholarship Schemes, and Maulana Azad National Fellowship schemes, to ensure the Educational Development of Minority Communities in India. These higher education schemes, the eligibility criteria for the same and other funding schemes were deliberated over in this session.

Dr. Deepika Singh, Nodal Officer, Equal Opportunity Cell, IIS University proposed a formal vote of thanks and boosted the morale of the students to take up with these schemes to promote higher education in the state and acknowledged the participation of students and the efforts of the resource person invested in the planning and conceptualization of the conference. To capture the memories of such august gathering, as to serve a significant purpose, in a concrete art form, the audience and the staff members then proceeded for a group photograph at the foyer area of the University.

The second day of the conference i.e. January 7, 2020, marked the channelization of two technical sessions- Infrastructure & Development as session one and Government Schemes for Self-Employment as session two.

Session one began with the need for Infrastructure Development in our country expressed in the words of Shri Manmohan Singh as "playing a cyclical role in pure public-private partnerships." The resource person further elaborated on the term 'Development Deficits' and the core programme launched in 90 minority concentration Districts under the National Development Agenda under the nomenclature of Pradhan Mantri Jan Vikas Karyakaram (PMJVL). The scheme provides better socio-economic infrastructure facilities to the minority communities in Education, Health and skill-related fields. Enriched information on schemes like Hamari Dharohar and a project titled "The Everlasting Flame" organized by Dairatul Maarifil Osmania, Osmania University was further discussed in detail. Session two comprised the Government Schemes for Self Employment & Financial Support extended to the minorities wherein the discussed the nuances of various schemes like NMDFC loan schemes, Mahila Samridhhi Yojana, Virasat and many others. The students were amused with delight at the availability of such lucrative options for them.

The Valediction Ceremony began in the presence of Dr. Subhash Garg, Minister, Rajasthan Technical Education, as the chief guest. Dr. Ashok Gupta earnestly greeted the chief guest with his welcome remarks. Dr. Raakhi Gupta, Registrar, IIS (Deemed to be University) tendered a Souvenir to the chief guest and invited him to address the gathering. Dr. Subhash Garg, the Minister, shared his experiences and the parameters that enhanced his personality as an individual. He further enlightened the students on healthy living and enthusiastic initiative taking culture to contribute to the growth of the nation. He addressed the students as 'architects of the nation' and motivated them to preserve the Indian spirit and tradition.

Dr. Raakhi Gupta proposed a formal vote of thanks expressing heart-felt gratitude to the chief guest, Chairman Shri B.P.Singh and the elevated gathering for their presence. She culminated in the entire conference in very few but extremely powerful articulations. She boasted the morale of the students by quoting her own example. She belongs to a Jain minority community and was unaware of the minority resources available to her due to a lack of exposure in the times. The students were able to connect with her ideas and hence were overjoyed at the avenues available to them. The participation certificates were then awarded to them.

The conference of this stature eventuated through the collaborated efforts of the Equal Opportunity Cell (EOC) of the University in collaboration with the Centre of Advanced Studies, Research, and Development (CASRD), Delhi School of Professional Studies & Research (DPSR).

As we commemorate 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, his great thoughts need to be pulled into action. He is not only the political visionary who led India to freedom but a social reformer who wanted the society to outgrow prejudices, move forward to become self-sufficient and self-reliant. In tune with Gandhian philosophy the NSS volunteers participated in a cleanliness drive under Swachhata pakhwada on 8th August 2019 and the venue was Sanganer Railway station. NSS volunteers divided themselves into groups of four each. They all wore gloves and cleaned the area near station entrance. The volunteers managed to clean the entrance area of railway station. There was an excellent display of teamwork and cooperation. This for sure set an example for the general public to learn that the onus to maintain a clean environment is on us as citizens.

Swachta Rally

On Monday 14th August 2019, NSS volunteers organized Swachhta Rally in Hajiawala Community. NSS volunteers with students of Hajiawala Government School did the rally in nearby community by showcasing posters and saying slogans in chorus. Creative and informing posters were made by the NSS volunteers. The rally was conducted in two groups so that the whole area could be covered.

The aim behind the rally was to aware and educate people of the nearby community about cleanliness and healthy surroundings. Posters carried the messages like 'KACHRA KUDADAN MA HI DALE', 'SWACH BHARAT- SWASTH BHARAT' and many more which were appealing regarding the cause. Such rallies help every individual to contribute in making India clean and green.

After the rally school students with the help of NSS volunteers pasted posters on the walls of the school. The rally was successfully done in the community.

Swachhata Pakhwada (2019) 2- 14th September, 2019

Swachhata Pakhwada was conducted in IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur between 1st September to 15th September. A Jal Shakti Team was constituted involving the faculties and students. The activities which were undertaken during this Pakhwada were conducted in University campus and in Hasampura village adopted by the University under Unnat Bharat Abhiyan. A total of 234 volunteers participated in all the activities. Details of the activities are:

Problem Identification

Members of Jal Shakti team visited the Hasampura village on 2nd Sept 2019 to have an idea about the existing water conservation activities undertaken by the villagers, water related problem which they are facing and to formulate strategies to deal with those problems. One day before the visit Sarpanch was informed and he was requested to inform the villagers about the Jal Shakti team visit. Villagers were asked to gather at a common place and the activity started with a discussion on present status of water in the village. During the discussion the problems identified related to water are: There is an acute problem of water in the village and there is no alternate resource except Nevtā bandh. The villagers did not just face problems with respect to irrigation for agriculture but also experienced difficulties in arranging water for day to day activities. The water level in the village had depleted alarmingly over the years.

Villagers were found to be aware about the water scarcity in their village and they are facing it too but surprisingly not doing anything for water conservation. Male complained that women at home waste water a lot but women did not agreed to their statement. Although they are informed about water scarcity in Rajasthan through different media sources but not taking any step to resolve this problem due to lack of self-realization. Only two-three households were found to have installed the system of water harvesting. No further step was taken to renovate the traditional water bodies like wells, ponds etc.

Constitution of "Gram Jal Shakti Team" in Hasampura

A Gram Jal Shakti team of total seven members were constituted in Hasampura village on 2nd Sept 2019. Two women and three women from the village and two faculty members of IIS (deemed to be university, Jaipur), Dr. Alka Kataria and Ms. Archana Kumari were included in the team. Approval of the village Sarpanch was taken for the Gram Jal Shakti Team.

Poster making on Efficiency in utilization of water

A poster making competition was organized in government school of Hasampura on 6th Sept 2019. The purpose to organize this competition was to make children aware about the ways they can adopt in their day-to-day life for saving water by using it efficiently. Before making the poster children were explained by the students of IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur about how and when they generally waste water in their daily activities and how they can save water. It was very surprising to see that many students showed the ways of water being wasted in their surroundings through pictures or writing on paper.

Literacy Project in Government Schools 9th September, 2019

The NSS volunteers went to 5 different government schools for the literacy project. There were 480 volunteers who took up the task to impart knowledge among the students by using innovative ideas related to education. The students made posters with the volunteers. They expressed their concern about the importance of cleanliness through art. This activity aimed at inculcating knowledge among the students so that they can become channels of spreading civic sense in general. It was a true learning experience for the volunteers as well as the students.

Yoga Session

The second day of the NSS camp started with the yoga session on 28th January 2020. The session helps to warm up the body. Few small asana are practiced in this session. Students are quite enthusiastic for the same.

Nukkad Natak

After the yoga session the Mr Mohammad Ali started teaching few skills of nukkadnatak. Students are divided in team and different themes are selected by them. Students started practicing their respective group theme.

Projects in School: Students of special NSS camp of Group A As a part of the project theme 'Creative Learning', volunteers went to Dadab ari school to help them with their studies. The volunteers as per the activity plan took pulses and gram to enhance motor skills of the students and teach them tables using the same. The NSS volunteers divided themselves into groups and each group went to various classes for interacting with the students and teaching them through innovative ways. For all those students who find mathematics difficult to learn, it was truly a fun activity and since they have their exams going on, it was really a productive exercise for them. The volunteers used certain games to teach students that could help them remember various kinds of nouns. As a part of the literacy project, volunteers assisted the students to revise their curriculum. Similarly the students of Group B went to Badmohanpura school with the project on environment. They showcased a short movie on environment pollution, students love to see that. Film is based on a child who worked for environment conservation with limited resources. Volunteers of Group C went to Kalyanpura School with the project on stress management during examination. On day 2, nss volunteers shared strategy to cope with stress during exams. by means of chart they made the students understand how they can distress them by practicing very small things like time management, taking balanced diet, etc. Volunteers of NSS Group D took the project cleanliness Three activities were undertaken: Drains cleaning, Paper bag making Poster making competition The drains in Hajiyawala are open and filthy. So an effort was made to clean them and raise awareness about the same in the community. Drains were cleaned with the help of a sweeper, under the supervision of students. The school students were taught the method of preparing paper bags in order to discourage the use of plastic bags. They prepared two bags individually. Poster making competition was organised on the theme of "Environmental hygiene". The winners were given chocolates as a token of appreciation for their work. Students enjoyed the activities. Group E was on Learning Physiotherapy named "Finer and Motor Skills" for helping disabled children and learning how special children learn through these activities in special school. volunteers of Group-E visited the special school 'Umang' located in Kshipra Path, Mansarovar, Jaipur. With their brief orientation the previous day, students moved on to understand and learn the various activities which they have to do with the special children in order to improve their finer and motor skills. There were 6 different activities involved which were related to development of sensation, perception, balance, etc., in special children. Thereafter, NSS volunteers were divided into groups of two and were monitoring the movement of every child in every activity. This was an enriching experience for all the NSS volunteers as they got to learn many complexities involved in such activities. They were thrilled to be a part of these activities developing 'finer and motor skills' in special children.

Poster Making

Ms Sheetal, Assistant Professor IIS (Deemed to be University) gave a knowledgeable and fulfilled lecture in NSS Special camp. The main aim of the session was to get familiar with Assam culture by the means of poster making. The students learn poster making skills, how to make an expressive and acute posters.

The day started with a yoga session on 29th Jan 2020 by Ms. Janki Pareek. The NSS volunteers learnt and practiced various asanas during the session. In the session, the instructor also told them about various mantras like Gayatri Mantra, Saraswati Mantra and made the volunteers understand their importance in keeping oneself fit. Towards the end of the session, the instructor made the volunteers practice meditation by spelling "OM".

Projects in Schools

Soon after two sessions all the NSS groups went to school for conducting their project-related activities. 22 students of special NSS camp of Group A visited Dadabari Government school. The activity under Creative Learning was Creative Writing. The school students were shown an object/picture and were asked to write about it. The students were confused about the activity but when the instructions were cleared and the volunteers encouraged them, the students did the task with a smile on their face. 16 students of Group B went to Badmohanpura school with the project on environment. They help the different groups of students in preparing small skits on the topic environment conservation. Tomorrow these students will perform in front of other school students and teachers. Students of govt. school participated with full enthusiasm and are looking very excited to perform tomorrow. 12 volunteers of Group C went to Kalyanpura School with the project on stress management during examination. Mesmerizing Kuchipudi Dance performance at IIS University

23rd August 2019: Jaipur: IIS (Deemed to be University) has organized a Kuchipudi dance performance under the aegis of Society for Promotion of Indian Classical Music and Culture Among Youth (SPIC MACAY) by renowned performer YeleswarapuSrinivasulu on Friday. With such programmes the SPIC MACAY society promotes Indian classical music, dance and culture among youths.

MeenaEluri was the supporting artist and co-dancer with YeleswarapuSrinivasulu. P.srinivasulu was on Nattuvangam& vocal, P.HaranadaSastry on Mrudangam and Y.Purnachandrarao on Harmonium.

The programme commenced with Namaskara in Kuchipudi dance form through which MeenaEluri thanked God, parents and mother earth. Then she did VinayakStuti to seek blessings of the lord and requested to remove obstacles from the lives.

YeleswarapuSrinivasulu with MeenaEluri performed Dasavatara in which they represented ten avatars of Lord Vishnu with hand gestures. In Kuchipudi Dance form a lot of emphasis is given to abhinay&Bhav. Nine kinds of emotions that are present in every human being are presented in this dance form.

The auditorium echoed with applaud as soon as YeleswarapuSrinivasulu begins his scintillating dance performance depicting the Drauadi Cheer from Mahabharata.

Mesmerizing and thrilling Brass Plate dance which is an exceptional in Kuchipudi Dance form was kept for the last. The youngsters were totally enthralled by the amalgamation of his feet and brass plate.

Performance of SASHAKT at The IIS University lawns

20th July, 2019

On 20th July, 2019, the members of IISU Theatrical Society performed Sashakt, the street play. It was the very first event of the session 2019-20 by The Theatrical society. The play was performed in the lawns of the University Campus at 12pm sharp by 16 student members of the society, where a number of freshers showed keen interest to participate as audience.

The play proved as a motivation for self-empowerment and also, to inspire them to stay safe and alert by letting them know about many fundamental rights and laws. The Teachers of the department were present to make sure the performers stay motivated. The play was full of energy and enthusiasm of the students and lit the faces of the large audience with laughter along with empowerment. The girls called it "self- empowerment" rather than women empowerment. The amazing performance was ended with the loud applause and appreciation by the audience of the university.

Guest Lecture on Chhau Dance by Mr. Jagannath Seth 16th September, 2019

Knowledge is best gained if someone experienced shares it. On 16th September, 2019 Mr. Jagannath Seth, a specialist in Chhau dance came to the IIS (deemed to be University) for a guest lecture, organised by IISU Theatrical Society. 250 students gathered for the session.

Jagannath Seth, an alumnus of National School of Drama is an actor, dancer and a Chhau artist. He has done total of 42 plays and has won many state and national level drama competitions. It was mind blowing to watch this personality perform.

The program began with his warm welcome. Jagannath sir talked about the origin of chhau and its types. He talked about 3 kinds of chhau, belonging to Bengal, Jharkhand and Odisha respectively. He efficiently taught us about various musical instruments which are used in chhau including dhol, nagada. Not just this, he explained the relevance and importance of the use of mask in chhau dance. Moreover, he talked about different kinds of costumes used in depicting different characters.

The program was uplifted when he himself performed and showcased the magic of chhau. It was mesmerising to watch him perform. The kind of balance and patience he had was remarkable. He briefly explained the mythological connection chhau dance holds as an art form. His body was full of grace, beauty and charm. He is definitely an epitome of talent and skills.

The event ended with an interactive session where students cleared their doubts about chhau. Lastly, he was thanked and praised with a round of applause. This event was entirely full of knowledge, adventure and experience.

Annual Play 2019 titled "Ek Bhoot Ki Atmakatha"

23rd September, 2019

50 students of the IISU Theatrical Society staged their Annual Play 2019 titled "Ek Bhoot Ki Atmakatha" on 23rd September, 2019. The play was a culmination of a 30 day workshop that taught the participants various styles of theatre, disciplines and etiquettes of working on stage.

The Chief Guest of the play was, the renowned theatre and film artist, Ms. Ratna Pathak Shah. She not only acknowledged the teams' efforts into creating the play but also provided useful insights about what the focus points while performing should be. The entirety of the play was a result of a lot of time put in and had its own moments. After all, Rome wasn't built in a day.

Process and milestones of the workshop:

The journey of 30 days was a splendid one. Each step, leading the students to become better actors and moreover, better people with strong personas.

The workshop began with the basic step of familiarization. Introducing themselves, the students' ideas and reasons to join theatre acted as a small window to knowing the team. They got to know the director, Mr. Siva Prasad Tumu and understood his expectations from the play, the team and his work ethics.

The very next step and one of the most important one was that of interpretation. It involved looking at the play beyond literal levels of understanding. Participants pondered upon the message these stories are trying to convey and how they link them to the real world. Through this, they got an outlook upon how the participants were not there as blank slates but came with their own set of thoughts which needed to be spoken out.

Portrayal through improvisations was a very intriguing step of the process. It not only showed how creative the participants were but also brought out their opinions in a structured manner. Each group gave different forms of the same story in different styles like mime, musical or dance drama or through plain narratives but with intricate formats.

Through these improvisations, the director moved on to character blocking. This was done through linking the participants' personalities with the characters' needs. Each person brought their own eccentricities and ideography as a contribution to the characters' development.

Registrar
IIS (deemed to be University)
Mansarovar, Jaipur-302020

Once the blocking was complete, the plot as a whole was formed. The loop holes were understood and covered and each story was worked upon numerous times with several different styles. In this, our acting trainers, Mr. Jagannath Seth and Mr. Mahesh Godeshwar, played a significant role.

The participants were introduced to Chaau dance and Pina Bausch's style of theatrics. Mr. Seth made them understand the importance of inculcating the habit of feeling the rhythm of the music and the essence of the story and bringing it out in our movements. Mr. Godeshwar essentially worked on building an aura and leaving your presence on stage long after you've exited. Speech should not be limited only to words and dialogues but should create a link between the actor and the audience was his training motto.

The first run through was an impactful moment and nothing less than a milestone in this workshop. The students understood what the play was trying to tell us, how strong its message is and how much more we need to contribute to it. It was one of the most emotionally moving aspect of this workshop.

Further to this came the stages of property development, set development, lighting and music settings and most importantly the art of projection techniques. The participants actively worked through the nitty-gritties of the play. Among other things was understanding how to use the stage space and exploring all possibilities of the set that was so vigorously made.

One thing that this workshop taught everybody all is that 'Theatre' is not just being on stage and delivering dialogues. It's about understanding others and more importantly, ourselves. From getting rid of inhibitions, stage fears and mental blocks to knowing that no matter how quirky you might be, theatre accepts you for who you are.

Participation in Intercollegiate Ad Mad Competition at JNU

27th September, 2019

On the 27th of September, 2019, five students of the IISU Theatrical Society took part in the JNU ad mania competition. The competition was a part of JNU's fest Technorazz. The theme was to make an ad on tea. The participants from IIS Theatrical society were Priyal Mathur, Chandrika Jajoo, Suhani Jain, Garima Israni and Yashika Vijay.

The brand that was promoted was Jaago Mohan Chai and the tagline the students picked was "Ye pee jaye to din ban Jaye!".

The event was an amazing experience for the students and did a lot to improve the participants' spontaneity. It is a big task to come up with something at the moment which is not only worth performing, but should also stick with the audience.

The students had a blast at the event and learned a lot about on stage ethics and team work.

All in all, the competition brought out the best in the students and added another feather to their cap!

Street Play "HAHAHA No" at Awaaz Studio

12th October, 2019

Mental Health is an essential part of our lives. It is of utmost importance that we understand the dynamics of mental health. A street play: "Hahaha No" was presented on 12th October, 2019 in the evening at Birla Auditorium organised by Awaz Studio.

The street play focussed on the critical importance of positive mental health, especially optimism. It portrayed how humans have been so busy in mocking at each other, how we have been busy in our daily work and life that we have forgotten the simplicity and necessity to smile. Smile is so crucial to human beings but somehow we have ignored the aspect of happiness and smile. The street play also emphasizes on certain facts related to happiness and smile. It over all gives a message of how we all can be happy and mentally healthy only if we all try to be positive.

The street play started with a call song, which was attractive and catchy. It maintained the concentration of audience towards itself. The street play ended with a song asking out people to smile and be happy. There were a total of 150-200 no of people who witnessed this event.

The participants looked extremely beautiful in red kurties and ropes. They looked amazing with the coordinated make up and accessories. It was wonderful to watch

Participation in Intercollegiate Mono Act Competition 15-16th October 2019

An astonishing conference session on rethinking theatre, dramatic and unsustainable studies (RTDS2019) was organised by Amity University from 15-16th October 2019. On sixteenth October 2019 it was attended by Nitya Saxena and Chandrika Jajoo of IIS (Deemed to be University). They performed in the Monologue Competition. Nitya Saxena secured third position with her amazing performance.

The event started at 4:00 o'clock. Nitya's story was about a child getting kidnapped and then losing his whole childhood to begging and thugs. The Monologue was called "The Lost Childhood". Chandrika Jajoo performed "My present is crying for my past". A beautiful story was moulded into a presentation by her. It was a story about how we are busy within our phones and its effect on our lives. The time limit was from 5 to 7 minutes for all the contestants.

Last but not the least, the event would not have been possible without the efforts and encouragement of the teachers and volunteers of IIS University and Amity University both. Special thanks to all the teachers, volunteers and the theatrical society for coming up with such unforgettable event .

Hosted Intercollegiate Nukkad Natak Competition Xuberance 2019

18th October 2019

Teamwork results in intense satisfaction. This could be seen on 18th October 2019 when an Inter Collegiate Street Play Competition 'HallaBol' was organised by the IISU Theatrical Society of IIS (deemed to be) University under the Inter College fest Xuberance 2019. The event was organized in the lawns. The timing of the event were from 11:30 to 3:30.

In this exciting and thrilling event ,total of 8 colleges /Universities participated including JECRC University , JECRC foundation, Manipal University, Subodh College, B. Lal College , Mahaveer College, Kanoria College and our own IIS University. It was wonderful to host and see these teams full of zeal and energy.

The venue was open and hence a mass audience could be seen, students were excited to witness some real energies and dramas. There were food stalls, properly decorated surroundings, an amazing fest feel around the campus. The event started with the welcome of the judges, who were Bhagwant Kaur Ma'am and Mehmood Ali Sir, who are both experienced and active theatre artists.

Moving on to the actual fun, all the teams were provided tag numbers to perform in respective orders. All the participants were provided with refreshments and proper necessities. All the teams were properly dressed and looked full of enthusiasm and motivation. All the teams encouraged the other team while performing, this showed how rationally the teams were enjoying the concepts and performances. They were all supportive, hence, it was not 8 teams rather it looked like just one team.

Street play is a bold way of expressing our thoughts and feelings through our actions. All the teams understood this aspect, they definitely touched the social aspects of our society which needs to be thought about. Many sensitive topics were touched. For instance, JECRC team took upon a topic of how women's menstruation is a gossip point, how everyone around discriminates and devalue a woman while they go through this pain. Another team, Manipal University, talked about mental illness and its effect on human survival. They showed how our lives have become full of suicides and ultimate mental illness. The IIS University showcased a thought of how we all points out problems on our own country, where we actually forget to look at the good things we have. We search around in other world to find the pleasure but it is actually near us, around us. Many more topics were there such as alcohol abuse, Male's exploitati on, environmental pollution etc.

All these topics were beautifully and boldly presented by all the teams. It could actually go through the hearts of the audience as well as judges.

In the end, Judges talked about their experience and gave a feedback of the event. They overall enjoyed the energy and thought processes of the new generation.

Participation in Intercollegiate Nukkad Natak competition At Manipal University
20th October 2019

We all are aware about what is happening around us, but nobody stands up to speak. Street play gives a perfect opportunity to people to stand for things we need to change in our society. It is a direct way to communicate with people in order to seek change.

This could be done in an inter college cultural fest "Oneiros 2019" where street play event "Awaaz" was organized by Manipal University, Jaipur on 20th October 2019. The event started at around 1 pm, it was held in an open ground with audience everywhere around.

Team of 20 students went for the same. There were many teams who performed including the IIS (Deemed to be University). The event started with motivating words of the anchor and some super soothing songs. The rules and regulations were spoken out for all the teams. Every important and crucial thing was made clear.

Topics such as "mental illness", "fake news" and "environment" were shown by other teams and many more. Our team performed the street play named "Kasturi Hiran" was performed. It was about how easily we blame others and forget to acknowledge things around us. The name explains the ironic story of the infamous Kasturi Hiran, who roams around to find the attractive smell which actually came from him. Same way, we humans roam around to seek pleasure and success whereas it remains within us. The performance started with an entry that takes places from every direction, even the audience. This made everyone curious and put everyone in complete awe.

The performances touched the hearts of the audience which was evident from the kind of applaud and cheers they gave. The audience definitely motivated the performance with their utmost support .

The event ended with inspiring words of the judges , who explained the importance and necessity of street plays. Not to forget, our team stood 3rd in the competition . Constant photographs were being taken while we were performing. It was definitely a memorable event for everyone.

Performance of Skit 'Tale of 1947'

18th Dec, 2019

A skit was performed on 18th Dec, 2019 for the students of COSD Theatre Studies by two members of the IISU theatrical society. Religious violence in India includes acts of violence by followers of one religious group against followers and institutions of another religious group, often in the form of riots. Religious violence in India has generally involved Hindus and Muslims.

The partition displaced 10-12 million people along religious lines, creating overwhelming refugee crises in the newly constituted dominions; there was large-scale violence, with estimates of loss of life. The violent nature of the partition created an atmosphere of hostility and suspicion between India and Pakistan that plagues their relationship to the present.

The play showcased this bitterness which grew among every single person including Muhammad and Jugal, two close friends who couldn't even imagine a day without each other but later fell prey to the partition of India which ended with Jugal killing Muhammad because of their religious fights, after partition was announced, the subcontinent descended quickly into riots and bloodshed resulting not only open killing of Hindus and Muslims, but also murder of their unbreakable yet breakable relationships.

Three COSD theatre students came forward with their entirely different but enlightening performances. The first performance named " Dosti" was about a girl who lost his best friend , who was not just a friend , but family. The monologue portrayed the hidden emotion of loneliness and emptiness that exists within the girl. It talked about the small but crucial things we share in friendship.

The next performance named " koi toh ho" was based on a girl who is all alone in spite of so many people around. Who smiles but does not feel the gay from inside. She is a book reader, who is tired of being alone. The character blames the society for being selfish and not real.

The third monologue, famously known was "gagan da mama bajyo". The character showcased intense sadness and about what had happened in jalianwalabagh through the eyes of a sister who lost her brother there. The performance was filled with feelings and intensity.

All the acts took the hearts of audiences. It was wonderful to watch them perform.

Organization of "Prop Tempore" Intra College Competition

9th January 2020

An astonishing competition was organised by 30 students of the theatrical Society of IIS University on 9 January 2020. That is, a prop tempore competition at COSMOS- ANNUAL FEST 2019-20 at 11:00 AM in the Ojas hall. The event aimed about a fun way to bring out the best in the participants while using a prop.

The competition started with an introduction to prop tempore and then to the judges who were Miss. Manali Sharma and Mr Sumit Pal Singh. After the introduction a memento was given to the judges by the president and vice-president of IISU theatrical society. After a heartwarming welcome, the competition started. Each participant had to choose one prop and had to act accordingly on stage. After all the performances were done, it was requested to the judges to share their words of wisdom with the audience and to the participants. With that came the end of the mesmerizing competition.

The event was not only enchanting by its participants and performances but also with its costumes and props. The enthusiasm was not only seen in the participants but within the audience also as they all were encouraging the participants by their unstoppable clapping and cheerings.

Last but not the least as memories have to be kept forever, came the photography time. Group photographs were taken. All smiley faces full of passion and energy. The event would not have been possible without the efforts and encouragement of the teachers and volunteers. Special thanks to all the teachers, volunteers and the theatrical society for coming up with such unforgettable event.

Participation in Inter-collegiate Street Play Competition at St. Xavier's College 19th January 2020

Street plays are a medium through which we can express the reality of society & individuals. It is a direct way to communicate with people in order to seek change. For the same universities organise street play competitions. ZEST an intercollegiate competition was organized by Xavier's college Jaipur on 19th January 2020. The event started at around 10:30, it was held at a quadrangle ground.

Team of 20 students went for the same. There were a lot of teams which performed including ours, The IIS University. The event started with motivating words of the anchor. The rules and regulations were spoken out for all the teams.

Topics such as female inequality, failure of democracy, fake information spread were showed through different teams. The students of IISU theatrical society performed a street play named "Kasturi Hiran". It was about how easily we blame others and forget to acknowledge things around us. The name explains the ironic story of the infamous Kasturi Hiran, who roams around to find the attractive smell which actually came from him. Same way, we humans roam around to seek pleasure and success whereas it remains within us.

All the performances touched the hearts of the audience which was evident from the kind of applaud and cheers they gave. The event ended with inspiring words of the judges, who explained the importance and necessity of street plays. Not to forget, a group photograph of all the teams, coordinators and judges was taken.

Performance of skit 'Blush & Brush'
25th January, 2020

5 students of COSD Theatrical Society presented their production "Brush and Blush" on 25th of January 2020. The play depicted the theme "Beauty is in the eyes of the beholder"

What if your eyes have become conditioned to see beauty as we see on -screen.

This play is about the ideas of beauty evolving through time. Our culture and traditions have such a great impact on the ideas and perspectives of how we see a woman, and this thought is so rigid and comes so naturally that we fail, even to register it.

The play was directed by Ms. Mumal tanwar. It was a mixture of devising and documentary theatre. It was the first moving theatre of university. Play was ended with personal stories of actors, which left a great impact on audience. All the faculty members and the students enjoyed the performance and cheered up the participants with heavy applause.

Performance of "Qurbat" in Inter collegiate competition at LNMIT, Jaipur 1st February 2020

Twenty two students of the IISU Theatrical Society performed their stage play, Qurbat, in LNM Institute of Information and Technology on the 1st of February 2020.

The students had an enriching experience in the fest, Vivacity. The competition, aura, and energy were very engaging on this day.

Only the second place where this new play was showcased, the participants of Qurbat strived hard to convey the message they had formulated in their play.

The audience in the fest was involved and it felt refreshing to have listeners.

The play was ranked 3rd and it only encouraged the students to refine their methods and go for upcoming challenges!

Visit to Aashray Care Home

1st October, 2019

"Every heart needs a home."

On 1st of October, 2020, 8 Rotaractors of Rotaract club of The IIS (deemed to be University) , Jaipur , visited the Aashray care home in, Nirman Nagar, which was established in 2006.

The home consisted of 21 girls and 5 boys of various age groups from 3- 16 years of age. The main motive of this visit was to spend our time with these children and make them aware about their surroundings.

The Rotaractors of Rotaract club of The IIS University , Jaipur, prepared some videos on personal hygiene and good touch and bad touch to make those children aware and be safe. The initiative of making them watch those movies and videos was done under the guidance of Dipika ma'am and See ma ma'am.

Later on gifts including stationary, biscuits and chocolates were distributed to those children that brought a very wide smile on those faces. Those childrens also showcased their talents and skills t us through dance and singing.

Aashray care is Rajasthan's first homestay of its kind and is sheltering orphans and homeless children since many years.

Outcome –Theinitiative of visiting Aashray care home and spending some time over there and making them aware about certain issues was fulfilled when that bright smile came over faces of those small little children. The main motive was to encourage them to keep their surroundings clean and know about the importance of good touch and bad touch, which was well presented through videos.

Activity: Door-to-door visit (Reduce, Reuse, Recycle)

The first day of internship aimed to build a rapport with villagers and spread awareness among villagers regarding the personal hygiene and cleanliness, disposable plastic and garbage collection. The students were divided into groups and sent to different 'dhanis' for door-to-door survey. Students of the IIS (deemed to be UNIVERSITY) interacted with villagers and talked about segregation of biodegradable and non-biodegradable waste, reducing the use of plastics and reusing materials. They were also informed about what the students are going to do in the coming days in village and asked for their cooperation too. It was observed during the survey that most of the villagers are indulged in agriculture and farming occupation. Most of the houses had toilet and bathroom but there was no proper drainage system in the village. It was very surprised for the students that in the absence of any garbage dumping area villagers were used to dump their garbage in nearby dried well. Those who do not have any well or digs throw their garbage in open area. When the students asked them not to dump their garbage in open area they came with the complaint that municipality van for garbage collection do not come to their village and they do not have any alternate for it. Throughout the survey we discovered that the major problem was the lack of a waste collection mechanism, which if present would improve the condition greatly. Almost 50 houses were found to have compost pit in their houses and they were using it properly.

One group of 9 students visited the primary school of the village-Hasampura. They interacted with students and talked about personal hygiene, keeping the school premises clean and reuse, reduce and recycle the waste.

Awareness amongst the economically weaker section of the society about the GOI initiated schemes under National Mission for Financial Inclusion (NMFI)

26 February, 2020

Rotary Club Jaipur Gurukul in Collaboration with Department of Financial Studies, IIS (Deemed To Be University), Jaipur organized an extension activity for the residents of Dadabari basti, Jaipur. The extension activity was organized for creating an awareness amongst the economically weaker section of the society about the GOI initiated schemes under National Mission for Financial Inclusion (NMFI), namely, (a) Pradhan Mantri Jan Dhan Yojana (PMJDY) , (b) Pradhan Mantri Suraksha Bima Yojana and (c) Pradhan Mantri Jeevan Jyoti Yojana.

20 Students of the department volunteered for the activity under the guidance of Dr. Shefali Mathur and Ms. Daksha Pathak. The volunteers performed street play on PMJDY, interacted with the residents of Dadabari Basti, Jaipur and motivated them to enroll in these Financial Inclusion schemes. The residents were very happy and actively took part in the interaction. A puppet show was also organized to explain these underserved people the importance of such schemes. Officials of State Bank of India were also invited to cater to the queries of the interested individuals. The Extension activity proved to be a success as it resulted in ten plus successful enrollment under the schemes.

Social Equality: A Challenge for Women in Society

12 March, 2020

On the occasion of International Women's day 2020, Department of Journalism and Mass Communication in collaboration with NSS organized an interactive session on Social Equality: A Challenge for Women in Society. The speaker of the day was Dr. Priyamvada Singh, Social Activist, Policy Advisor, IPE Global and Founder, BalSansar. Dr. Singh spoke on 'Equality for Women' as she has started a campaign called 'Each for Equality' which tries to cover the issues of women across generations. Dr. Priyamvada commenced the session by talking about her journey in the field of social service and what factors motivated her to work for people. She spoke about various challenges faced by women in the society irrespective of their backgrounds and how they put other before themselves.

She discussed importance of education for women and the need for the women to improve upon their levels of nutrition. The problems should be addressed from the very beginning as individuals are taught to discriminate themselves and others specially on the basis of gender and this results in a society that starts taking women for second class citizens. As not just in rural areas but even in urban and semi urban areas women suffer from anemia and other diseases because of lack of proper health and nutrition which led to increase in infant mortality rate and birth of weak infants. She said that if the society wants to ensure safety for women; instead of restricting girls, boys should be taught make how to behave.

She also said if we want to invest in a woman, we should, do it since her childhood. A woman should have access to all life chances, social prestige and security to become a productive individual in the society. The session was followed by discussion and students asked their queries. In the end vote of thanks was given by Professor SharadRathore, Programme officer NSS. 60 students of the department attended the programme.

GROUP LEADERS TRAINING

13th August, 2018

For this Group Leaders' training 50 NSS volunteers assembled in the Seminar room initially to learn something new and invent something new in themselves. They were asked to give self-introduction. Mr. Valen and Miss Nadini, both Trainers in Genpact, in the LEARNING and DEVELOPMENT Department were the resource persons for this training. Mr. Valen, a calm, disciplined, determined, focused and well-coordinated person introduced himself to the volunteers. Ms. Nandini Dusad, was a Group Leader in NSS, The IIS University. The participants had to share one liner on their aspect about LEADERSHIP and their ASPIRATION as a NSS volunteer. It was a fun way to break ice.

The volunteers then proceeded to the Back-Lawn of the campus to know each other and understand themselves in a better way. A game of blind fold was played by dividing into two groups. One person from each group was blind folded and the group had to direct her without letting her hurt and any miss-happening. Then was the time to jot down flaws and mistakes, what was lacking and what needed to be learnt.

The journey of training and a memorable knowledge bank came to an end with Mr. Valen sharing his first impression of the volunteers. by Ms. Nandini's motivational words would encourage the volunteers so that they think beyond what they could do more to facilitate the surroundings to make this World a better place for the one's who are stuck in deep dark hole's and need our hands to BRING THEM TO THE BRIGHT LIGHTS.

Nukad Natak in Communities

The NSS volunteers went to community to perform a Nukad on Swachhata. The Nukad was first held in school where all students actively came to enjoy Nukad which was all about "Swachhata". Then they moved towards the community along with the students of the school. Before starting their Nukad they collected the residents and passerby by enchanting loudly "Aaoaao,natakDekho". All are other members of NSS who were not part of Nukad went to each house of community to invite them for Nukad. A huge crowd was gathered at the bastiChauraha. The people in the crowd were seemed really very interested. When nukkad was going on there a lady said"sunosunodekho ye saafsafaikeFaydebtarhe h". After Nukad was ended, people asked the volunteers for suggestions and ways of keeping their surrounding clean. It had a great impact on the people of community.

On 06 Sept 2018, Swachhata week Volunteers were divided into two groups. First group performed Flash Mob in the Back lawn area of the university Campus on Swachhata song. Since it was performed during the Lunch break so large number of students from all the department attended the activity. Along with this a small group of students participated in Zombie activity in which zombies were scaring the students who were found littering the campus. The zombies visited each look and corner (Parking area, staff room, back lawn) of the campus to scare the person who were found littering the campus.

On 7th of January 2019, 22 NSS volunteers of group D visited the special school 'Umang' located in Kshipra Path, Mansarovar, Jaipur. To begin with the Chairperson of Umang Dr Deepak Kalra briefed them about the organisation Umang. She was very impressed to know that NSS volunteers had prepared teaching aids for disabled children. So after interaction on the basis of teaching aids they had prepared, she divided the volunteers into five groups and sent them to different classes. NSS volunteers interacted with the students. After building a rapport with them they taught them few concepts with the help of their teaching aids. There were few games for lower classes which the students really enjoyed playing with. After one hour classroom interaction the volunteers donated all the teaching aids to the chairperson Dr. Deepak Kalra. It was a great learning experience for the volunteers as few of them had first time interacted with disabled children.

Assisting Special Children in Umang 25 March 2019

102 students of NSS visited the organisation for multiple challenges children: Umang located on Kshipra Path, Jaipur on 25th of March 2019. The main objective of this visit was creating sensitivity among NSS volunteers towards special children and giving them the exposure to deal with those children in the classroom. Volunteers were divided and sent to different classrooms. There they followed the instruction given by the respective teachers in the classrooms. They assisted those special children in doing their work. Many of the volunteers had no idea about the kind of difficulties special children face in the classroom. Not only this they realised that what kind of skills a teacher require to deal with those children in classroom.

National YUVA Leadership Camp
Date- 20th January 2019
Place- Poornima University, Sitapura, Jaipur

The noon of January 18th, 2019 was marked by the commencement of the 5th edition of the National YUVA Leadership camp conducted as a part of the Leadership Academy by the CII Yi Six Yuva volunteers from the University Shefali Bisht, Sejal Machiwal, Yashika Choudhary, Vishakha Khandelwal, Prachi Kothari, Urmil Jeswani participated in it. The students were warmly welcomed by the coordinators into the premises of Poornima College of Engineering where their stay for the next 3 days was facilitated. After a few hours, the two buses of Poornima University itself were filled with the enthusiastic and excited members of YUVA. The first visit was to a ball bearing cages manufacturing industry named Manu Yantralaya. The 1988 established industry has collaborations with many MNCs and had an impressive machinery setup. After having snacks and mementos given by the team of Manu Yantralaya, the members of YUVA got bifurcated into two groups: one for the visit to Ratan textiles and the other to the Gosil exports. The visit to Ratan textiles was filled with colors, aesthetics and magical experience. The students got to witness the manufacturing of textiles in their most simple and pure form. In visit to Gosil exports the YUVAs got to see and learn about the most exquisite secret behind the finish, forms and shapes given to the jewels. The industrial visits ended with the arrival of students at the Poornima University at 1830 hours. This was followed by the official inauguration of the leadership camp and lamp lighting by Ms. Alifiya Calcuttawala, Yi YUVA National Chair & Regional Director, The Wanderers and Mr. Shreyans Kasliwal, Yi Jaipur Chapter Chair & Director, Kamal Autofinance Ltd. The young members of YUVA were then introduced with the vision behind CII and Yi. They were informed about the perspective behind the formation and execution of CII Yi YUVA. With this, the mike was handed over to Mr. Shreyans Kasliwal who highlighted the leadership skills and the true character traits of an effective leader. It was then that the YUVA members along with Ms. Calcuttawala got introduced to each other through a very interesting activity. They were then divided into 8 teams to perform an overnight activity based on political parties. The objective of the skit was to inculcate the students with the knowledge of effective teamwork, leadership, cooperation, and time management. The students after dinner again gathered to be a part of the YUVA's Got Talent contest to end the night with some entertainment and fun.

The 2nd day of the camp was scheduled as a Jaipur city tour to Amber Fort, Hawa Mahal and Jal Mahal. Mr. Tarachand, the tour guide was extremely friendly and warm. It was very well evident by the excited faces of the students that they neither wanted the time to pass nor did they had the patience to explore more. The picture clicking sessions, souvenirs, and extremely captivating view were most probably the highlights. After the lunch, the entire auditorium was ready with enthusiasm and energy to greet the next speaker Mr. Rahul Mrichandani, Yi past National Chair and Executive Director, Aries Agro Ltd. With the help of stories and interesting examples, the session was totally amazing. Each and every student participated to show his/her keen interest and attentiveness. After a short break, the time came to showcase the charts and skit based on the 5 point agendas prepared by the different teams overnight. The presentation was extremely impressive as many of the students with stage fear and lingual problems also courageously presented their views. The last speaker of the night was Mr. Nitin Sethi, Vice President Digital, Indigo Airlines and explained when is the right time to lead and how to make global brands. The long yet satisfying day ended with the dinner.

The last day of the camp commenced with the speech of a very brilliant and successful person Mr. Paresh Gupta, Brand ambassador, Rajasthan Government Youth and Sports, and TEDx speaker. Every word spoken by Mr. Gupta filled everyone with more respect for him and his reputation. In fact, it was extremely fascinating to hear all the speakers and to know them. They proved out to be very friendly and cooperative by answering the questions and helping in every way possible. To sum up the entire speech sessions, Mr. Atin Jain, Founder Brooklyn World Travels, Director Westford Insurance Brokers&Risk Managers Pvt. Ltd. came up with a final presentation and a very motivating video. The next and again a much awaited session was the valediction ceremony. Every team was highly appreciated and awarded certificate of participation. The helping hands and the coordinators ere thanked with a token of appreciation, and great round of applause. To capture the moment all the members, leaders and coordinators assembled to have a group photograph and to bid goodbye to the different young minds from different states and cities. The three-day experience proved out to be a great learning session for not only the students but the leaders who were present on the occasion.

Kathak performance by Pandit Deepak Maharaj

16th January 2019: Jaipur: Noise of words is merely a Tamasha, silence is the real definition of dance (Shabdon ka shor to sirf Tamasha Hai, Maun hi Nritya ki Paribhasha hai). This is how Pandit Deepak Maharaj, son of Pandi Birju Maharaj defined 'Kathak' to the student audience on the occasion of SPIC MACAY program organized by the IIS (Deemed to be University) at International School of Informatics and Management (IIIM), Technical Campus on Wednesday.

He further said that his father and Guru Pandit Birju Maharaj has actually raised the bar of Kathak as a dance form. Pandit Deepak Maharaj showed resentment towards experiments and remix being done in the name of Kathak. According to him, such things destroy the purity of the dance form. He says that Kathak should be performed in the proper outfit to maintain its essence and originality. He shared his memories with his father as how he used to keep a check on a scene or the costume to be worn by the actress before taking up any bollywood project. This is the reason why iconic songs Dhai Sham Rok Lai from Devdas and Mohe Rang Do Lal from Bajirao Mastani are still fresh in the minds of audiences.

Pandit Deepak Maharaj was accompanied by Shree Pranshu Chaturlal on Tabla, Janaab Gulab Vaaris on Vocal & Harmonium and Janaab Muhammad Ayuub on Sarangi.

He presented various forms of Kathak like Tukda, 16 circles, Tihais etc with great ease and left everyone spellbound. His expressions spoke thousand words when he narrated Makhan Chori story through this popular dance form.

The session ended with a traditional jugal-bandi which was enjoyed by all.

ANNUAL PLAY -"Phool & Fools"

Committing suicide these days, has become as fashionable for the youngsters as to fall in love. There are situations in which the youngsters take a stern step and for them it is a 'trend' to do so. Such situations that force the youngsters to take stern decisions collapsing themselves into other problems are shown by the students of IIS (Deemed to be University) Theatrical Society in their satirical Annual Play "Phool and Fools" staged on 29th September 2018 at India International School Auditorium.

The play began with introducing two narrators, who in a very interesting way narrates the fantasy story. The narrator while telling the story to the audience, introduces the lead character of the story Rajkumar Astabhan and his best friend Mufatlal. As the play moves on, it shares a serious conversation between the prince and his friend. After failing in BA examinations three times, the upset prince decides to commit suicide and asks his friend Mufatlal to do all the preparations for his suicidal event. The prince asks Mufatlal to search for all the ideas of committing suicide and finally he agrees upon jumping off a cliff.

At the cliff, the prince meets Rani Nagfani, who was also there to commit suicide as she is heartbroken and failed in love relationships six times. As the conversation between them begins, they fall for each other and decide to get married. The comical situations take place after their decision, formed rest of the story of the play. The play is based on "Nagfani Ki Kahani" penned by noted writer Harishankar Parsai highlighted the awful situation of the society in a hearted way. Described through situational comedy, the play was relished by the audience.

Vivek Kumar has directed the play while Hardik Shah has designed it. According to the director, the play is based on Red Nose Cloning Form and the philosophy behind this form is finding something in nothing and conveying sense out of non-sense. This play was an outcome of 38 days of theatre workshop in which 43 artists were taught the spontaneity and the element of surprise in life as 43 different souls were transformed into energy on the stage.

Mr. Vivek is an alumnus of National School of Drama and has been trained in Red Nose Cloning under Ashwath Bhatt. He has performed in more than 500 shows of wizcraft's production "JHUMROO" at Kingdom of Dreams. Hardik Shah is a founder of Five Senses Theatre Group. Presently, he is directing a Web Series for Amazon Prime. Theatre Co-ordinator Dr. Aditi R. Khandelwal has contributed in giving the play a final shape.

The defining quality of this entertaining show was its cast. The comic timing of Urvashi Bidawat as Astabhan and Divya Bhomia as Mufatlal is simply amazing. Priyal Mathur as Nagfani was very convincing in both the situations once when she was heartbroken and later when she fell in deep love with Astabhan. Mansi Agarwal and Surabhi Agawal tickled the funny bones of audience who played the role of Poet and Singer respectively while trying to pacify grieving Astabhan.

Bandit Queen fame National Award Winner Theatre, Film and Television Actor Ms. Seema Biswas was the chief guest on the occasion. Ms. Biswas applauded the artists' performance in the play and persuaded them to pursue acting as she had seen a great potential in them.

Dr. Ashok Gupta, Vice-Chancellor of the university has congratulated everyone associated with this play for putting their heart and soul into it to make it successful. He also distributed participation certificates to the students.

Thus, Theatre is the perfect outlet for people to be original and to express themselves. For many people, theatre also gives a purpose for life. Human beings naturally want to express themselves, and theatre is the most expressive art form. "This is why theatre is important: because it presents a reflective vision of a life that is vastly more fascinating and alluring than the one in which we're stuck." - Lemoney Snicket.

Screening of Ted Talk

23rd February 2019

A Ted Talk was screened for Foundation Women's Studies students. The Ted Talk by Kamla Bhasin is titled 'Patriarchy Dehumanizes Men!'. The 18 minutes Ted Talk is an attempt to make students see how gender not only constraints men but it also dehumanizes them. It banishes the idea that patriarchy only oppresses women. It does not allow scope for men to express emotions which leads to unexpected violent ruptures. The Ted Talk was done in either coed college or only male students! As the audience is not visible it is only through Bhasin's addressing of the audience this assumption can be made and the acceptance of audience can be heard by cheers. Her quoting of WHO about the missing girls brings forth the gender perspective to both genders!

Students were asked to write what they would do to bring change in the patriarchal system. Bhasin and her brothers celebrated Raakhi by tying it on each others hand, brothers and sisters together lit the pyre of their mother, such examples gave an insight how practical possible changes could bring equality. 50 students attended the session.

VIRASAT 2019-ANNUAL DAY

The IIS University celebrated its 24th Annual Day 'VIRASAT' on the 14th of March, 2019 in the University Lawns. It was a beautiful synchronization of the classical & contemporary forms of dance and music. The students of the University presented a beautiful extravaganza incorporating foot tapping dances, music and a fashion fiesta that left the audience enthralled.

Mr. Ashish Sharma, TV Actor and Alumnus of IIS and Princess Mrigesha Kumari of Rajkot were the Chief Guests for the occasion while Ms. Mamta Bhupesh, Stare Minister for Women and Child Development, Govt. of Rajasthan was the Guest of Honour.

The programme began in a traditional fervour by invoking the divine spirits. The representatives of various clubs, society and guild named as VIBGYOR of The IIS University staged a flag march to represent the dignity and discipline of the university.

The programme included a semi classical ballet. It was followed by a Medley of folk dances showcasing the culture of North East India. The students of the Dance club presented a choreography which was a tribute to the victory of good over evil. Nightingales of the university showcased the very spirit of Rajasthan through the folk songs sung by them. Students set an example of glorious culture of Rajasthan. The students showcased the very spirit of Rajasthan captured perfectly in all its folksy glory. The upcoming designers from the Dept of Fashion Technology showcased their talent through fashion show.

The programme was a grand success and everybody enjoyed and appreciated the excellence presentation put up by the students of the University.

21 फरवरी 2018

भाषाएँ केवल अभिव्यक्ति का माध्यम नहीं, सांस्कृतिक गौरव की भी वाहक होती हैं। विभिन्न भाषाओं का ज्ञान हमारी अभिव्यक्ति को अधिक प्रभावशाली बनाता है। खासकर लोकभाषाओं के पास मुहावरों व लोकोक्तियों का असीम भण्डार है जो उनके कथन को सशक्त बनाता है। लोकभाषाओं की शब्द सामर्थ्य का अनुमान इससे ही लगाया जा सकता है कि राजस्थानी भाषा में ऊँट के लिए ही चार सौ से अधिक पर्यायवाची हैं, तो विक्रमी कलेण्डर के हर महीने में बरसने वाले बादलों के लिए एक अलग नाम है पर अत्यन्त खेद का विषय है कि दुनिया में इस समय प्रचलन में मौजूद करीब सात हजार भाषाओं में से आधी भाषाओं पर इस सदी के अंत तक लुप्त हो जाने का खतरा मंडरा रहा है। ऐसी स्थिति में हर संवेदनशील व्यक्ति का यह कर्तव्य है कि वह अपनी मातृभाषा को बचाने का दायित्व निर्वहन करे। यूनेस्को ने भी 21 फरवरी को अंतर्राष्ट्रीय मातृभाषा दिवस के लिए चुना।

21 फरवरी 1952 को तत्कालीन पूर्वी पाकिस्तान (अब बांग्लादेश) के ढाका शहर में राजनीतिक दुराग्रह के कारण युवाओं को पुलिस दमन का शिकार होना पड़ा। दरअसल, पाकिस्तान बनने के पहले से ही यह सवाल हवा में तैरने लगा था कि पाकिस्तान की राष्ट्रभाषा क्या होगी? पाकिस्तान के तत्कालीन प्रधानमंत्री लियाकत खान ने उर्दू को पाकिस्तान की राष्ट्रभाषा घोषित कर दिया। पूर्वी पाकिस्तान के बांग्लादेशी लोगों ने इसे अपने अस्तित्व की अनदेखी मानते हुए प्रतिक्रिया में बांग्ला को राजभाषा बनाने की मांग को लेकर आंदोलन शुरू कर दिया। 21 फरवरी, 1952 को ढाका में नव आंदोलनकारी जनपथ पर आए तो पुलिस फायरिंग में कई लोग मारे गए। इसीलिए यूनेस्को ने 17 नवम्बर 1999 को अंतर्राष्ट्रीय मातृभाषा दिवस के लिए 21 फरवरी का दिन ही चुना। बांग्लादेश में तो इस दिवस को भाषा शहीद दिवस के रूप में पहले से ही मनाया जाता है।

अश्या कपूताँ सँ दुखी, सगलो देस समाज।

महाविद्यालय की छात्राओं में मातृभाषा के प्रति प्रेम जगाने व उन्हें जागरूक करने के उद्देश्य से 21 फरवरी 2018 को दी आई आई एस विश्वविद्यालय के हिंदी विभाग की ओर से अंतर्राष्ट्रीय मातृभाषा दिवस के उपलक्ष्य में अनेक गतिविधियों का आयोजन किया गया। इस अवसर पर छात्राओं के लिए मातृभाषा में गीत व लोकगीत गायन प्रतियोगिता, निबंध लेखन, लघु वीडियो प्रतियोगिता एवं पोस्टर प्रतियोगिता का आयोजन रखा गया जिसमें छात्राओं ने बढ-चढकर भाग लिया।

Para Sports Meet (29 August 2017)

The National Sports Day was celebrated at The IIS University on 29th August 2017, by the Equal Opportunity Cell, Sports Board and NSS as a tribute to the ace hockey player, quick goal scorer and a winner of three Olympic gold medals, Dhyan Chand Singh. A Para Sports Meet is held on the occasion every year, with a desire to invigorate the especially abled children of various organizations. The para sports meet was declared open by Dr. Raakhi Gupta, Rector and Registrar, The IIS University. Children from various communities working towards the cause Umang, Disha, Milestone, Nirmal Vivek and Sweekar enthusiastically participated in the games held on the occasion. The games included hockey, ring throw, pick and run, bunch balloon, straw pick, face painting and water fill and run. The feeling of a constant regard and dedication to the capabilities they exhibited in sports left everyone spell bound and led to a cheerful ambience. Dr. Ashok Gupta, Vice-Chancellor, boosted their fervency by presenting gold medals to all the achievers and mementoes to the teachers. Children also explored the hues of a colorful life experimenting the fun and frolic on sheets of paper. Dr. Raakhi Gupta explicitly stated the alpha and omega of the occasion and shared the synergic delightful moments. The programme culminated with a valedictory note by Dr. Sharad Rathore.

Student Participation : 500 in all Stationary Donation (25 September)

During community visits and interaction with the people, it was observed by the NSS volunteers and the Group coordinators that majority of parents of students coming to Hajiyawala Government Primary school are labors. They are not able to fulfil the basic educational requirements of their children and what is provided by the government is not sufficient.

With the support of the Donation Drive of Rotary Jaipur Gurukul, the team donated the collected stationeries in Hajiyawala Government Primary school. The happiness on the face of every child after getting stationeries was the motivation for NSS volunteers and Rotary club Jaipur Gurukul to conduct such donation drive time to time in future too.

On 19th December 2017, NSS special camp 2018 took place at Vinayak AV hall of The IIS University. On this occasion, the session was graced with the presence of Prof. Pradeep Bhatnagar, Dean, Department of Science, The IIS University. In this session all five groups of NSS Volunteers presented their work which they have done in community schools allotted to them during the camp by means of power point presentation .It included pictures of activities taken up during the camp in government schools like teaching basic English, general etiquettes, awareness about protection of environment, liberty and empowerment of female students, etc. In the presentation, volunteers also included videos of their activities in the government schools. Presentation was followed by Nukkad Natak competition related to projects taken up by volunteers in Government School. The competition was judged by Prof. Deepa Pareek, Dr. Renu Shunglu and Prof. Bhawani Shankar Sharma. In the competition, the NSS volunteers who presented the nukkad natak on theme of environment conservation stood second and first position was bagged by nukkad on the theme of literacy presented by NSS volunteer of group D. Session on Heartfulness and Yoga PranaVidya Healing

A Guest lecture on Yoga PranaVidya Healing and Heartfulness was organized on 26 February 2018 for 163 NSS students. Mr Karan Toshniwal from Rama Krishna Mission shared a beautiful story about a woodcutter who was getting less output inspite of putting more hours. His Guru put a relevant question to him - did he sharpen his axe? ,which made the students learn that hardwork is important but gives result only when done in the right direction. The session moved on to the release of MrJoshua's book and introduction of people from RamkrishnaMission.Mr Joshua read parts of the book commenting in between to give clarity. He said meditation eases restlessness which is all about being alive. Heart inspires, informs to change. Heart is not preoccupied with self. When heart is concerned only with the individual it does not function as the heart only thinks of the common good.

Nukkad Natak Training, Mr. Mohammad Ali (13-19 December, 2017)

MR. Mohammad Ali, a theatre artist provided training about the finer nuances of Nukkad Natak everyday from 13th till 18th December. The final performance of which would result in the nukkad natak competition on 19th December. He said that Nukkad is a medium to take the social message to a large number of people without a mic; hence the voices should be loud to be heard by one and all. Street theatre is always performed in outdoor public spaces and requires clarity of speech and effective dialogue delivery to attract public attention.. These spaces can be anywhere, including shopping centers, car parks, recreational reserves, college or university campus and street corners. The students learnt the nuances and everyone participated in the Nukkad natak training during the camp.

Nukkad Natak- at Mahindra Sez -Organ Donation
22nd January 2018

NUKKAD NATAK was conducted in Mahindra SEZ on 22nd January 2018 to bring awareness among all the employees regarding Organ Donation. A team of 16 students went for the same. It is an initiative to increase awareness on organ donation and it is for sure that slowly but surely we are educating people and removing the myths related to this noble gesture. "Nukkad Natak have been an integral part and the idea is to propagating social and political messages in a humorous and sarcastic way and create awareness among the masses. "Nukkad Natak", is characterized by highly enthusiastic and energetic performance so as to attract maximum crowd."

As Nukkad Natak started there was an overwhelming response of all the audience. Employees gathered to learn about "organ donation" and why it is important. Organ donation basically is removal of viable organs from a donor (brain dead individual) and transplanting them to a recipient. ICG girl's aid to aware everyone about the organ donation, the twelve-member group reached out to the people through their thought-provoking play hustle around the various aspects of donation. According to sir, he will encourage more employees to learn and take steps towards it. He also conveyed the message about the organ donation and details regarding to it. These fears can be fought and lives can be saved by spreading the message on this noble cause, "The people, especially the youth, are sensitized and open to the idea of organ donation. The need of the hour is to reach out to one and all."So today, let's pledge to gift a life and enlighten the people on the cause.

The play took place twice as it attracted a lot of interest from the employees. The enthusiasm from the audience demonstrated the growing need and demand which bring people together. Audiences appreciated and applauded the efforts put in by the students. They also thanked the ICG College for organising such an awareness programme.

One-day campaign on 'Vote Karega India Tabhi Toh Badlega India'
11th July 2017

On 11th July 2017, The IIS University in association with the election commission organized a one-day campaign in the University campus. The drive was attended by the district collector Mr. Siddharth Mahajan, Election Commissioner Mr. Ashwani Bhagat and the brand ambassador Ms. Apoorvi Chandel.

It aimed to raise awareness among the youth for systematic voter education and electoral participation. The program started with a Nukkad Natak performance by 15 students of The IISU Theatrical Society presenting the importance of voting and election processes. In the Nukkad Natak titled "Matdan Badlav Ki Pehchan" students presented a lot of facts about the voting conditions in India. The most important information given by the students was mention of NOTA – None of the Above – a new option which was introduced in 2014 where a voter could press NOTA to cast his vote but at the same time registering his intent that none of the candidate was worthy of his vote.

Annual Play 'RUSTOM-O-SOHRAB' – Workshop and Showcase 22nd August – 26th September 2017

The IISU Theatrical Societies Annual Play workshop commenced on 22nd August 2017 under the supervision of Mr. Hardik Shah. This year the theme of the annual play was Persian with environmental stage.

Persian theatre became popular in Iran in 7th century AD, long before the advent of cinema. Few of the well-known Parsi Plays are - Ru Howzi (comical acts on domestic life), Pardeh Dari (screen based storytelling), Pardeh-khaani (mobile singing, storytelling read off a curtain).

The Parsi play shortlisted for the year 2017 was Rustom O Sohrab, an Urdu play by Agha Hashar Kashmiri. The tragedy of Rostam and Sohrab forms part of the 10th-century Persian epic Shahnameh by the Persian poet Ferdowsi. It tells the tragic story of the heroes Rostam and his son, Sohrab. It was first published in 1929.

The whole process of making this play was larger than life. With team of more than 26 actors(students) the practice of the play started with vigorous training in sword fighting, voice modulation exercise, music class, script reading, set designing, allocation of different props, lights and gym workout, Every step include learning, hard work, dedication, determination, conviction and management for completing each task perfectly. From beginning team was been divided into different departments like set designing, costume, museum, props, stage managers etc. In short the creation of the whole play involved a process informed by method, aesthetic choice and economic context, as well as practical aspects.

Workshop

The Students preparing for Annual Play 2017 were taken for a historical trip of Jaipur to learn the nuances of the era of Maharajas to learn their clothing, art, architecture and Warfare. Trip was organized on 25th August 2017. 27 Students were part of trip along with 3 faculties – Dr. Aditi R Khandelwal, Mr. Hardik Shah and Mr. Lohit Pareek. The places covered were Albert Hall, City Palace, Hawa Mahal and SargaSuli.

Music Classes for the students participating in Annual Play were conducted on 29 August and The resource person for the Vinay Sir from music department of The IIS University. The Students went to Farm House for learning Horse Riding on 6th September, 2017. Mr. Mansinghji helped in it.

On 26th September 2017 the whole team performed Rustam-o-Shrab in The IIS University Lawn in the presence of International fame Mr. Raghubir Yadav as the chief guest. Play started on high note with drum beats, fine sufi music, perfect lightning, each character retelling her character again and again with such a fine and learned techniques, dialogue delivery and power of holding the audience till the end. Mr. Raghubir Yadav appreciated the play and in his speech said that it was one of the best Parsi Play he has ever seen. Finally the hard work of the team paid off. Play was highly appreciated not only in Jaipur but its voice has reached the whole india. The collaborative participation of the whole creative team in all stages and aspects of the creative process marked the exemplary success.

Thus, Theatre is the perfect outlet for people to be original and to express themselves. For many people, theatre also gives a purpose for life. Human beings naturally want to express themselves, and theatre is the most expressive art form. "This is why theatre is important: because it presents a reflective vision of a life that is vastly more fascinating and alluring than the one in which we're stuck." - Lemoney Snicket.

Sapne Sach hue is a project of Rotary club Wardha. They select kids from very humble and rural background and give them a feel of city life as a motivation. It is also meant to develop various skills among them. The highlight of the event was their meeting with princess Diya Kumari and lunch at City Palace. They also celebrated Makar sakranti by kite flying.

Outcome: It had an intention to give those kids a vision so that they can achieve impossible in life. In the process we learnt to appreciate things around us and learn to motivate people to strive towards a better life.

Unnat Bharat Abhiyaan Sub-Committee Survey – I
1st May 2018

A sub –committee survey was conducted by a team of 3 faculty members and 2 students. The team was led by Prof. Sharad Rathore. Prof. Rathore briefed the members about the objective of the survey. The main objective of the survey was to get an insight about the near by villages in the Sanganer District. To achieve the same Prof. Rathore took an appointment with the Block Development Officer (BDO) at the Panchayati Raj Office, Sanganer.

Prof. Rathore was accompanied by Ms. Chanda Asani and Dr. Roopam Kothari for the survey work. The Team reached at the Panchayati Raj Office, Sanganer at 12.30 PM, where they first met Mr. Puran Mal Vaibhav. Mr. Puran Mal directed the members towards the office of BDO.

The team members led by Prof. Rathore met Ms. Rinku Meena(8107392304), BDO, and oriented her about the purpose of the visit. Ms. Rinku was very happy and appreciated the initiative undertaken by the University. She also assured that she would help to the maximum possible extent in this outreach programme.

After the meeting following documents were made available to the team of Faculty members from the University:-

- Map of the Sanganer district covering the detailed information about all the villages
- List of officials including Surpunch, Gram Vikas Adhikari etc. along with their Phone Numbers.

Team members returned back to the University and apprised Prof. Raakhi Gupta, Registrar, The IIS University, about the meeting. Prof. Gupta appreciated the efforts of the team and suggested to expedite the process of networking and selection of the nearby villages where the University may initiate its activities for the overall socio economic development of the village.

Unnat Bharat Abhiyaan Sub-Committee Survey –II
(Muhana Village)
2nd May 2018

A sub –committee survey was conducted by a team of 3 faculty members and 2 students. The team was led by Prof. Sharad Rathore on 2nd May 2018. Prof. Sharad Rathore briefed the members about the objective of the survey. The main objective of the survey was to meet the Surpunch of Muhana Village Sri Sunil Kumawat.

Prof. Rathore was accompanied by Ms. Chanda Asani and Dr. Roopam Kothari for the survey work. The Team reached at the Gram Panchayat Office Muhana around 12.00 Noon, where they first met Mr. Girish Sharma, Gram Vikas Adhikari, Muhana Village. Mr. Adhikari directed the members towards the office of Surpunch. The team members led by Prof. Rathore met Sri Sunil Kumawat, and apprised him about the purpose of the visit. Sri Kumawat was very happy and appreciated the initiative undertaken by the University. He assured that the Gram Panchayat Muhana would help to the maximum possible extent in this outreach programme.

The Team of Faculty Members led by Dr. Sharad Rathore received a very positive response from Sri Kumawat and his team Member Sri. Girish Sharma, (7740943876) Gram Vikas Adhikari, Muhana Gram Panchayat. They immediately proposed a meeting to be held on 7th May, 2018 where the University team may interact with the representatives from different schools, anganwadis, Farmers etc. to plan out the forthcoming activities in the village.

Dr. Rathore also discussed the security issues related to the students of the University in the village, for which Sri. Kumawat assured that it will be duly taken care of. Further the team also enquired about the other near by villages like Badmohanpura and Jagannathpura.

Finally it was decided that to make the entire process formal and to ensure the smooth conduct of activities a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) may be signed between the Gram Panchayat, Muhana and The IIS Deemed to be University.

Team members returned back to the University and apprised Prof. Raakhi Gupta, Registrar, The IIS University, about the meeting. Prof. Gupta appreciated the efforts of the team and suggested to expedite the process of developing an MoU with consultation with Prof. K S Sharma, Advisor, The IIS University.

Guest Lecture on Challenges of Government School
23 October 2017

A one hour Guest lecture was organized for NSS Units at 9:30 AM on Challenges of Govt. School. The Speaker of the day was Smt. Rekha Chorasia, Principal, Sukhiya Government Primary School. She discussed about the various problems faced by the students of Government Schools and provided a guideline to the students on the various projects that can be undertaken in these schools for an overall improvement in the students. Another guest for the session was Mr. Motiram Arora who is currently working in government school. He shared his experience on his struggle and hard work he had done in his life to achieve success. He told that two things, i.e., hard work and discipline are very important in life to earn success. One should always try to gain and grab positive from every other person, try to learn from others. He shared one story of Mrs. Surbhi Chaudhry, accountant and computer literate of the year 1995. He explained how her hard work and strong will power helped the Rajasthan govt. to save lakhs of money by digitalizing the money work in just 27 days. He also discussed the importance of behavior in one's life. One should always be polite, disciplined and sincere towards everyone in every situation of life. He concluded his speech by saying that one should always work hard and be optimistic. 172 students attended the session.

Story Telling Competition
30 October 2017

A story telling competition was held in the IISU campus where all the volunteers of all the groups participated. The theme of the story was sharing any life experience related to corruption in their surroundings. There were certain rules to be followed while narrating the story. A total of 50 students participated in the competition and finally Ms. Sagarika of group D won the first prize. It was a great learning experience for students as well as for faculties.

IIS University- Penn-state University Collaborative, 2017

Students from Pennsylvania State University visited The IIS University from July 28 to August 3 as part of a visit comprising of faculty-led sessions, discussions and a number of add-on sessions. On the morning of July 28, the students and the accompanying faculty were extended a traditional welcome followed by the distribution of welcome kits. After the formal introductions, a round of informal introductions and experience-sharing was conducted to break the ice between the students from Penn-State and the Core-Student group of The IIS University. The highlight of the day was the session conducted by Prof. Prakash Kumar (Dept. of History, PSU) on "South Asian History". The PSU students were later given a tour of the campus to acquaint them with the various departments of the University.

After a 2-day weekend break, the students returned to the university for the second day of their visit. It started on a relaxing note with sessions on Yoga and Mindfulness. The assemblage was then introduced to the wonderful festivities of India by Ms. Rihdsidh Singh through her presentation "Festivals.." In an exciting and enthralling lecture-cum-demo on Tie and Dye, the students learned to create their own scarves in beautiful tie and dye prints. The final session of the day was yet another fun-filled colourful delight where the students learned to make Rangolis.

The beginning of the 3rd day saw the students indulging in an exciting jewellery making session where they created beautiful earrings, bracelets and neck pieces for themselves. In the next session, students learned the art of clay modelling and made miniature models of various kinds. They were given a tour of the university's Visual Arts department as well. Thereafter, Ms Lisa Kerchinski, one of the chaperons from PSU, gave a talk on 'Job Placements in the US' discussing the career development process at PSU. This was followed by an enlightening talk on "Nation-building.." in which Prof. Sharad Rathore elaborated upon the contribution of the university students to NSS.

The evening was reserved for home visits to acquaint the students of the Indian way of living and dining.

The fourth day began with an interactive session with Ms. Chanda Asani on 'Gender Bender: The Indian Scenario'. It was followed by a demo-session on Kathak by Ms. Shruti Mishra wherein the students learned the basics of the Indian classical dance form. The group then witnessed an impressive Nukkad Natak performance by the IISU Theatrical Society and the session continued as an informative discussion on the basics of theatre along with some theatre-related activities. The day ended with IISU-PSU student pairs making Audio-Visual presentations on certain pre-decided topics.

The final day started with the most anxiously awaited event: the cultural programme "East meets West". The event saw students of both the universities showcase their talents and closed with the presenting of tokens of remembrance by the Registrar. This was followed by a sumptuous Rajasthani meal. The students of Penn-State University were also taught the art of making Raakhis and were familiarized with the auspiciousness of the festival. They were bid farewell in the traditional Indian style by adorning their hands with Mehendi.

The entire programme received an immensely encouraging feedback from students of both the universities alike. It helped the foreign students to have a better understanding of the Indian way of learning and living and particularly gave them a taste of Rajasthan's rich tradition, art forms, customs, dance and music besides getting to know IISU's teaching-learning practices, systems and operations.

VIRASAT 2018-ANNUAL DAY

The IIS University celebrated its 23rd Annual Day 'VIRASAT' on the 17th of March, 2018 in the University Lawns. It was a beautiful synchronization of the classical & contemporary forms of dance and music. The students of the University presented a beautiful extravaganza incorporating foot tapping dances, music and a fashion fiesta that left the audience enthralled.

Ms. Shazia Ilmi Malik, Motivational Speaker and Social Activist, New Delhi was the Chief Guest for the occasion while Ms. Sudha Chandran, Indian Film and Television Actress was the Guest of Honour.

Dr. Ashok Gupta, Vice Chancellor of the University formally Welcomed the Guests and acquainted them with the achievement of the students and the faculty in the last academic session.

The programme began in a traditional fervour by invoking the divine spirits. The representatives of various clubs, society and guild named as VIBGYOR of The IIS University staged a flag march to represent the dignity and discipline of the university.

The programme included a semi classical ballet. It was followed by a Medley of folk dances showcasing the culture of North East India. The students of the Dance club presented a choreography which was a tribute to the victory of good over evil. Nightingales of the university showcased the very spirit of Rajasthan through the folk songs sung by them. Students set an example of glorious culture of Rajasthan. The students showcased the very spirit of Rajasthan captured perfectly in all its folksy glory. The upcoming designers from the Dept of Fashion Technology showcased their talent through fashion show.

भाषाएँ केवल अभिव्यक्ति का माध्यम नहीं, सांस्कृतिक गौरव की भी वाहक होती हैं। विभिन्न भाषाओं का ज्ञान हमारी अभिव्यक्ति को अधिक प्रभावशाली बनाता है। खासकर लोकभाषाओं के पास मुहावरों व लोकोक्तियों का असीम भण्डार है जो उनके कथन को सशक्त बनाता है। लोकभाषाओं की शब्द सामर्थ्य का अनुमान इससे ही लगाया जा सकता है कि राजस्थानी भाषा में ऊँट के लिए ही चार सौ से अधिक पर्यायवाची हैं, तो विक्रमी कलेण्डर के हर महीने में बरसने वाले बादलों के लिए एक अलग नाम है पर अत्यन्त खेद का विषय है कि दुनिया में इस समय प्रचलन में मौजूद करीब सात हजार भाषाओं में से आधी भाषाओं पर इस सदी के अंत तक लुप्त हो जाने का खतरा मंडरा रहा है। ऐसी स्थिति में हर संवेदनशील व्यक्ति का यह कर्तव्य है कि वह अपनी मातृभाषा को बचाने का दायित्व निर्वहन करे। यूनेस्को ने भी 21 फरवरी को अंतर्राष्ट्रीय मातृभाषा दिवस के लिए चुना।

21 फरवरी 1952 को तत्कालीन पूर्वी पाकिस्तान (अब बांग्लादेश) के ढाका शहर में राजनीतिक दुराग्रह के कारण युवाओं को पुलिस दमन का शिकार होना पड़ा। दरअसल, पाकिस्तान बनने के पहले से ही यह सवाल हवा में तैरने लगा था कि पाकिस्तान की राष्ट्रभाषा क्या होगी? पाकिस्तान के तत्कालीन प्रधानमंत्री लियाकत खान ने उर्दु को पाकिस्तान की राष्ट्रभाषा घोषित कर दिया। पूर्वी पाकिस्तान के बांग्लादेशी लोगों ने इसे अपने अस्तित्व की अनदेखी मानते हुए प्रतिक्रिया में बांग्ला को राजभाषा बनाने की मांग को लेकर आंदोलन शुरू कर दिया। 21 फरवरी, 1952 को ढाका में नव आंदोलनकारी जनपथ पर आए तो पुलिस फायरिंग में कई लोग मारे गए। इसीलिए यूनेस्को ने 17 नवम्बर 1999 को अंतर्राष्ट्रीय मातृभाषा दिवस के लिए 21 फरवरी का दिन ही चुना। बांग्लादेश में तो इस दिवस को भाषा शहीद दिवस के रूप में पहले से ही मनाया जाता है।

अश्या कपूताँ सूँ दुखी, सगलो देस समाज।

महाविद्यालय की छात्राओं में मातृभाषा के प्रति प्रेम जगाने व उन्हें जागरूक करने के उद्देश्य से 21 फरवरी 2017 को दी आई.आई.एस. विश्वविद्यालय के हिंदी विभाग की ओर से अंतर्राष्ट्रीय मातृभाषा दिवस के उपलक्ष्य में अनेक गतिविधियों का आयोजन किया गया। इस अवसर पर छात्राओं के लिए स्वरचित कविता, लेख, स्लोगन एवं पोस्टर प्रतियोगिता का आयोजन रखा गया जिसमें छात्राओं ने बढ़-चढ़कर हिस्सा लिया। विविध प्रतियोगिताओं की विजेता छात्राओं को प्रथम, द्वितीय व तृतीय पुरस्कार स्वरूप प्रमाण पत्र व पुस्तकें प्रदान की गईं। विश्वविद्यालय की नाटक मंडली ने मातृभाषा की महत्ता को समझाते हुए एक नुक्कड़ नाटक की प्रस्तुति भी दी। इस नाटक के माध्यम से दर्शकों को यह समझाया गया कि जब जापानी, चीनी लोग अपनी मातृभाषाओं को बोलने में गर्व महसूस करते हैं

तो हम भारतीय अपनी मातृभाषा में बात करने से क्यों कतराते हैं। नाटक में बताया गया कि हर अंग्रेजी बोलने वाला समझदार नहीं होता और अपनी मातृभाषा में बात करने वाला अनपढ़ नहीं होता। पोस्टर प्रतियोगिता में निर्णायक की भूमिका डॉ० उज्ज्वला तिवारी, सहआचार्य, दृश्य कला विभाग ने निभाई। स्वरचित कविताओं का मूल्यांकन डॉ० नेहा सिंघी सहायक आचार्य, हिन्दी विभाग तथा निबंध लेखन व स्लोगन लेखन प्रतियोगिताओं का मूल्यांकन डॉ० पूनम सेठी, सहायक आचार्य, हिन्दी विभाग द्वारा किया गया।

Orientation as well as Disability Sensitization Programme (23 August 2016)

The equal opportunity cell of the IIS University organized a Guest Lecture on the theme "Science in the service of making a difference in the lives of specially challenged men and women" on the occasion of National Science Day- 28th Feb 2017. Dr. Deepak Kalra, the invited speaker for the discourse began by outlining that the progress of innovation which have made for some extraordinary discoveries and drastically changed our lives. She chose to talk about just the inspiration of life and focused on how science has engaged with the physically challenged individuals. The address constituted 3 areas - (a) Understanding disabilities (b) Prevention (c) Living with incapacities.

Understanding incapacities examined the cause or the reason and identifying their advancements like Genetic testing, CT scan, MRI, ECG, Computerized visual testing, testing the infections for disabilities and many more. Identification of the cause takes place after the counteractive action by logical strategy which incorporates pre-origination tests like RH variable, genetic counseling, and antibodies for aversion of polio, little pox, observing pregnancy through sonography and vitamin-A program for avoidance of visual deficiency. The life supportive network for the newly born as in incubators, advanced prenatal and Neo-natal surgeries for conditions like Spina Bifida and Hydrocephalus were likewise referred about in the address. The most prestigious piece of the address comprised of the utilization of Assistive Technology for the rehabilitation of the weakened organs uniquely focusing the visual, motional and hearing. The pictures of multi-accessory wheel chair, automated walker, artificial limp for running, ice hockey and basket ball games as being played by these individuals in the para-olympics came as a relieving joy to the audience. Besides finger reader, pen reader magnifying reader for the visually impaired and advanced hearing aids for the people having problem with hearing, the sensory white stick and the added inventions of science which have made their life relatively less demanding.

Muskaan Arora and Vidhyawati Dhankar the uniquely abled students of the IIS University imparted their experience to innovations. Towards the end of the function, the vote of thanks was given and the token of remembrance was presented by Dr. Lata Shahani which followed group Photographs.

Disability Sensitization Programme

A Disability Sensitization Programme was organized by The Equal Opportunity Cell, The IIS University, Jaipur on 23 August, 2016 in order to sensitize the students towards the needs of special students. The resource persons were Dr. Suhana Sogani, Head Rehabilitation Centre, Umang, Jaipur. She was assisted by the physiotherapists from Umang, Dr. Gaurav and Dr. Tripti. Dr. Sogani discussed the problems faced by special students. She stated that they need empathy and not sympathy. The special children have their unique complaints and expectations. They require rehabilitation by a team of doctors, psychologists, social workers, family and friends. The students were given hands on experience of disability. They were made to sit on wheel chairs, blindfolded and splints were tied to their legs. They were assisted by volunteers and made to visit the library, sports room and class rooms. The students were also asked to develop in depth insight about the problem and also to adopt the special students as their friends.

ANNUAL PLAY -“PAAN KHAYENGE”

Annual Play was organized on October 5, 2016 in IIS Auditorium. Mr. Sudhanshu Pandey, model, singer and actor was the chief guest for the evening. Audience included theatre practitioners, senior citizens, college students and their families.

The Theatrical society of The IIS University in collaboration with 5 Senses Theatre group, Mumbai organized a 35 days theatre workshop during the month of September. As a result of the same, the team, the team staged the Annual Play on 5th October 2016 at the IIS Auditorium. The team also kept a pre screening of the show for the students of three government schools. One of the most interesting things about this year's annual play was the fact that the team had a whopping participation of almost 60 students.

The play was adopted by 'The Miser', a five act comedy play written by the French playwright Moliere. The play depicts a classic conflict between love and money. The protagonist is a sixty year old man who loves nothing but his money. The comedy develops through a series of tricks the characters hatch to make the old man change his decisions and perceptions. Through the play the team makes its best effort to show the reflection of the society in a humorous way.

The event started with the hawan pooja followed by the lamp lighting ceremony by the Vice Chancellor Dr. Ashok Gupta, accompanied by the Registrar Dr. Rakhi Gupta and Theatre Society coordinator Dr. Aditi R Khandelwal. The chief guest for the evening Mr. Sudhanshu Pandey, Bollywood actor and singer inaugurated the show.

The effective use of lights and set helped in building the atmosphere and enhanced the play. The play was directed by Sweety Ruhel and had acting guidance from Mr. Gurinder Sethi. The show was a huge success and the efforts of the students were appreciated by one and all.

Performance of Nukkad Natak onB “Matrabasha” at Poornima Institute of Engineering and Technology, Jaipur (6th March 2017)

Students went to perform Nukkad Natak under Extension activity to Poornima Institute of Engineering and Technology and imparted awareness on the topic “Matrabasha” 6th March, 2017. On 6 March, 2017, Monday a group of 15 students went to three different branches of Poornima Group of Institutions i.e. Poornima University, Poornima College of Engineering and Poornima Institute of Engineering and Technology. A very enthusiastic crowd awaited the performers. The students performed a Street Play on the importance of regional languages and how today’s generation takes pride in speaking in English and looks down on one who speaks in Hindi or any regional language. Going to the colleges and performing between the crowds about the issues was amazing as the crowd could relate with the topic. It was altogether an enriching experience. The performance received a positive response from the audience and the performers also got the chance to interact with the college students coming from different regional backgrounds.

Performance of Street Play on "Organ Donation" in SantokbaDurlabji Hospital, Jaipur (20th January, 2017)

Fourteen Students performed Street Play on the topic of "Organ Donation" in SantokbaDurlabji Hospital, Jaipur. The event was organized by CII-Yi on January 20, 2017 on the occasion of "Yi Gift an Organ Day".

NukkadNatak was conducted in collaboration with a team of CI YII, The IISU Theatrical Society and Dr. PiyushMathur who is a Nephrologist to celebrate Yi Gift an Organ day on the 20th of January 2017 in conjunction with the National Volunteering Week 2017. Gift an Organ has always been an initiative to increase awareness on organ donation and it is for sure that slowly but surely we are educating people and removing the myths related to this noble gesture. "NukkadNatak have been an integral part and The idea is to propagate social and political messages in a humorous and sarcastic way and create awareness among the masses. "NukkadNatak", is characterized by highly enthusiastic and energetic performance so as to attract maximum crowd."

As NukkadNatak started there was an overwhelming response of all the audience. Their audience was the eager crowd that had gathered in the hospital to learn about "organ donation". Organ donation basically is removal of viable organs from a donor (brain dead individual) and transplanting them to a recipient. Solid organs like heart, lungs, kidneys, liver, pancreas and intestine can be donated. Other tissues like corneas (eyes), skin, bones, cartilages, etc. can also be donated. ICG girls aid to aware everyone about the organ donation, the fourteen-member group reached out to the people through their thought-provoking play hustle around the various aspects of donation. According to Mr. PiyushMathur, he will be to encourage the general population to learn from positive people on how to bring more meaning into their own lives despite all the challenges. He also conveyed the message about the organ donation and details regarding to it. These fears can be fought and lives can be saved by spreading the message on this noble cause, "The people, especially the youth, are sensitized and open to the idea of organ donation. The need of the hour is to reach out to one and all."So today, let's pledge to gift a life and enlighten the people on the cause.

The play attracted a lot of interest from the hospital from the elderly, to the youth. The enthusiasm from the audience demonstrated the growing need and demand which bring people together. Audiences appreciated and applauded the efforts put in by the students. They also thanked The IISU Theatrical for organising such an awareness programme.

Performance of Street Play on Horn Not OK Please in World Trade Park
20th March, 2017

The students of the IISU theatrical Society went to the liveliest Mall of the city World Trade Park, with a new topic for awareness i.e. 'Horn Not OK Please'. A group of 22 students, divided into two groups, each consisting of 11 members sensitized the public about the harms of blowing horn. Team 1 performed at the North Block and then joined the second team in the call song during their performance at the South Block of the Mall. Both the teams gave good performances. The catchy start of this Street Play says it all. This Street Play was highly successful and proved to be an eye-opener act that emphasized the misuse and disadvantages of using too much horn and creating noise pollution in the current day and age that has proved to be a nuisance time and again. The performance garnered positive response from the audience and the performers also got a chance to interact with the passersby's.

Field Visit to Boraj Village

6th October, 2016

A field visit was organized by the Department of Sociology to Boraj village in Jaipur District on 6 October, 2016. Thirty students visited a private school run by Sai Arpan NGO. The school caters to the rural poor children and provides them free of cost education. They learnt about the management of the school by the NGO. They also interacted with the residents and Sarpanch of the village and enquired about the problems related to education of children. The students also studied the rural area through the use of Participatory Rural Appraisal technique.

The visit gave an overview of rural habitation and life –style. The students became acquainted with problems of education in rural areas and the bidirectional relationship between poverty and illiteracy. This motivated the students to offer free of cost services in education for improving the standard of students belonging to weaker sections of society.

So many customs, so many traditions. A plethora of lifestyles spread over diversified cultures" This is our world, which is a huge dish of a variety of spices, full of different colours and textures. And what can be better than tasting this dish. and exploring the world, by travelling! This is exactly what some exuberant students from the Pennsylvania State University, USA did. Recently these students visited India for a month-long study trip. A very important part of their trip was a visit to Jaipur and The IIS University, where they came across the beauty and hospitality of Rajasthan. The students from Penn State arrived at the IIS University on 29 July and were welcomed by the Vice Chancellor, Dr. Ashok Gupta; Registrar, Dr. Raakhi Gupta and teacher coordinators of this programme, Dr. Bhawana Arya and Dr. Radhika Sharma, along with a core group of IISU students. The first day was spent in introducing each other and getting acquainted with life on The IISU campus followed by liee-wheeling discussions and a campus visit. The next day began with a very soothing Yoga session, which was then followed by mountaineering and adventure activity including zip line and rappelling. The PSU and IISU students thoroughly enjoyed the experience. Next was a faculty presentation on the 'festivals and composite culture of India' which made the PSU students aware of the various religious festivities happening across India. Followed by this was the very interesting 'Tie and Dye' session. The students made scarves for themselves using the famous Bandhani technique of Rajasthan. Everyone was amazed to see the colourful end results of their hard work! The day ended on an even more colourful note when both the student-groups made traditional rangolis. Day 3 began with a faculty presentation on recent 'urban development' in Jaipur. followed by a sculpture-making session. Later in the day was a faculty moderated open discussion with Dr. Bhawana Arya and Dr. Radhika Sharma wherein students - apart from the core group members of the IISU - got a chance to interact with the Penn State students. At the end of the day was a jewellery-making session in which the PSU students made jewellery pieces for themselves. The next day started with an interactive faculty led session with Ms. Chanda Asani on the gender scenario in the contemporary world, particularly India. This was followed by the most thrilling part of the visit, the cultural programme. This included performances by PSU and IISU students on the theme "East meets West" The programme included song and dance performances by the IISU's cultural activity team matched by those given by their American counterparts. Next was the time for audio-visual presentations made by students from both the universities, as criss-cross pairs. Topics like "The LGBT Community" and "Impact of Social Media on the Youth" were touched upon in these presentations by the students. The day ended with faculty led group discussion - on the key learnings of the visit - by Dr. Rimika Singhvi. The students shared their views on each other's education system and their respective cultures, among other things. The last day of the visit commenced with a Kathak demo for the Penn State students and was followed by mehendi - applying. The day ended with a group photograph of the PSU and IISU students with the Vice Chancellor, Registrar, and teacher co-ordinators of the programme : Dr. Rimika Singhvi, Dr. Bhawana Arya and Dr. Radhika Sharma.

Self exploration leads to self improvement. Keeping in mind the differing perspectives of today's world and an overall development of the students, the College introduces various activities based on the essentials of personality development and individual excellence. The various extra-curricular activities provide opportunities to the students to bring forth foster and enhance their varied abilities. The aim is not to create a self-engrossed individual but to develop in her a spirit of team-work and respect for the abilities of fellow students. Thus in short, the essence of the move is to help optimize the potential, latent or patent, of each student.

VIRASAT 2017-ANNUAL DAY

The IIS University celebrated its 22nd Annual Day 'VIRASAT' on the 10th of March, 2017 in the University Lawns. It was a beautiful synchronization of the classical & contemporary forms of dance and music. The students of the University presented a beautiful extravaganza incorporating foot tapping dances, music and a fashion fiesta that left the audience enthralled.

Ms. Kiran Maheshwari, Minister for Higher Education, Rajasthan was the Chief Guest for the occasion while Ms. Aruna Rajoria, IAS was the Guest of Honour.

Dr. Ashok Gupta, Vice Chancellor of the University formally Welcomed the Guests and acquainted them with the achievement of the students and the faculty in the last academic session.

The programme included a semi classical ballet 'Navras'. It was followed by a Medley of Rajasthani folk dances. The students of the Dance club presented a choreo 'Aafreen' which was a tribute to womanhood. The students of the Music club presented a Medley of songs which was appreciated by one and all.

The Academic toppers as well as the students, who excelled in extra-curricular activities were felicitated on the occasion.

Apeksha Tickoo was awarded 'Pride of the University' and 'Excellence in Culturals' was conferred on Bhavika Shekhawar and Manika Sharma.

The programme was a grand success and everybody enjoyed and appreciated the excellence presentation put up by the students of the University.

Performance of Nukkad Natak for Celebrating "Matribhasha Diwas"

22nd February 2016

On the occasion of Matribhasha Divas, The Theatrical society of The IIS University performed a Nukkad Natak in the college campus on 22nd February, 2016 (21st being a Sunday) to create awareness about the regional language and its importance. 17 students performed the nukkad natak. The students raised the issue of how people neglect their mother tongue. They presented situations where kids are well aware of the English language but have very less or no knowledge regarding their own regional language. The interaction with the audience during the nukkad gave on the spot results of how the youth discriminates their mother tongue. The natak focused on most of the rajasthani languages like Marwadi, Mewadi, shekhawati, etc. Examples from Maharashtra and Kerela were given to tell the students how people respect their language and what we do with ours. The natak ended with a single note "HINDI, URDU, MARWADI BOLII APNI SABSE PYARI SABSE PYARI SABSE PYARI."

The Fourth day started with Yoga session by Yoga instructor Ms. Janaki Pareek after which the volunteers took a short break for breakfast. This was followed by a Guest lecture on 'Care and Well-being of Infants' by Dr. Anshu Mathur, Pediatrician. While focusing on Care of the New Born , she also talked about the significance of lactation, essential for the healthy growth of a baby. This was a very important message that she said that the students should carry in the community, the Aanganbaris and even in their homes.

After this the students left for the community to carry out their Projects assigned to them.

After Lunch Guest lecture on Soft Skills, by Dr. Shruti Rawal, was held in which Dr. Rawal shared the significance of good communication skills to put forth one's point of view clearly. She focused on the clarity of thought and assertion to make a point and be understood by others. This session was followed by Nukkad training and Self Defence Training.

The Fifth day started with Yoga session by Yoga instructor Ms. Janaki Pareek after which the volunteers took a short break for breakfast. The first lecture of the day was a skill building demonstration on Baking Cakes and Muffins by Ms Sheikh Sahar. She demonstrated how to make basic cake first and thereafter make improvisations to further give a variety. She also told th students how this skill has made her earn some money and now she gets orders and supports herself with her fees. The students really enjoyed the session.

Interactive Session on Cleanliness

27 February 2016

Ms. Chanda Asani asked the students to consider their campus as their body. If they give 20 minutes for cleaning their bodies then they need to think the proportion of time to put towards cleaning their surroundings too if it is part of their body. It is possible that the dirtiness is invisible to people, as the surrounding is not considered, as their own personal space.

Dr Sharad Rathore made the students take oath to commit 2 hours per week for cleanliness.

Students were then divided into groups and they were allocated blocks in campus to monitor and keep clean. They decided to commit to cleanliness and keep the campus and the surroundings clean.

Community Work Dadabari Basti, Sanganer 5 March 2016

88 NSS Volunteers visited GyanViharMandir School and Anganwadi in Dadabari Basti. They reached in time for the lunch time in school and talked to the students about the hygiene and the significance of washing he hands before a meal.They distributed lunch to children. They then went to each class and worked in group of children to disseminate information about personal hygiene. Other group of students went to the Aanganbadi and talked to the women of the basti, who were in the Aanganbadi. Others went around the basti creating awareness about health and cleanliness among the people of the the community . The people in community were aware of the SwacchbharatAbhiyan but were reluctant to take a lead and put the blame on the government and that there is no cleanliness in the basti. NSS volunteers talke to the men and women in the basti and gave them suggestions to keep the basti clean by throwing the litter in the designated place only and sweeping not just the home but also their surroundings for a clean and healthy community while following the swachhataabhiyaan!

Kalyanpura Government School 5 March 2016

88 NSS Volunteers went to the Kalyanpura Government School on 5th March 2016 as a part of the regular programme.The NSS volunteers divided themselves in groups of ten and went to classes. They interacted with students on one to one basis, in an effort to find out the academic issues that the students might have. Some students moved to the ground, where the students were playing games. In play-way method NSS volunteers tried installing values of health and hygiene. Issues such as always washing hands, keeping food covered,not to put hands in the mouth, not putting hands in the potable water, not to spit anywhere etc. It was two-way learning as NSS Volunteers got to know about the diverse backgrounds of the students and in turn they gave lessons of cleanliness, hygiene to the students, who promised to follow it in school and their homes too.Thevolunteers have been following up the lessons by meeting these students in the school to ensure that they develop a healthy value system.

Saleeb: Annual Play
4th September 2015

Annual Play Workshop culminated in Annual play staged at The IIS Auditorium on 4th September 2015, 6:30 PM. The chief guest of the day was Justice Manish Bhandari of Rajasthan High Court. Show also had presence of other theater artists and around 50 members of Senior Citizen Forum of S.F.S. The theatrical society of The IIS University organised a one month theatre workshop from 4th August to 3rd September and staged the Annual play on 4th September 2015 at the IIS Auditorium, which was a result of the same. The workshop was organised by 5 SENSES, a Mumbai based theatre group. The play was directed by Mr. Oasis and Mr. Dhirendra.

The play was an irony on the human society as a whole. The plot of the play depicted the difference between humans and scarecrows and showed how humans are turning into scarecrows by losing their humanity and destroying others for their own benefit. It also presented the suppression of lower class by the more powerful and elite people of the society.

Location - IIS Auditorium
Location Co-ordinates -26.867540,75.771308

The most important and interesting aspect of the play was, that the whole script was self written.

The play started with the lamp lighting ceremony and pooja by Vice Chancellor Dr. Ashok Gupta, Registrar Dr. Raakhi Gupta accompanied by Theater society coordinator Dr. Aditi R Khandelwal. The play was inaugurated by Justice Manish Bhandari, High Court, Jaipur.

The performance began in a narrative style and told the story of two villages, one with higher class powerful people and the other the lower class people who made scarecrows. Their was effective use of lights and sound which helped in building atmosphere and most importantly enhanced the play. The highlights of the play were crocodile dance and most importantly the climax scene of the play "THE COURT SCENE" which was the heart of the play which showed the dying humanity and presented how humans cunningly can make innocents into villains.

28 - 29th March, 2016

Department of Biotechnology organized an extension activity named Helping Hands. Student volunteers convinced faculty and students to donate used clothes. All clothes collected were checked to ensure that they were not torn. Students washed the clothes (if received unwashed) and ironed them. Then they segregated the clothes according to different age groups and packed them. The clothes of children were donated to NGO NayaSavera and of adults to Mother Teresa Home on 29 March 2016. The students interacted with the care taker at Mother Teresa Home and enquired about the contributions they can make on their end to help the need. 20 students participated in the event.

Students were overwhelmed when they visited NayaSavera. They felt happy to contribute their bit to the society. They also asked if such activities can be conducted on a regular basis. Two students have even become the registered volunteers of NayaSavera and are working on different projects for the NGO.

One-week Student Interaction Programme (29 July-4 August '15)

Report

The inception of the student interaction programme took place when a group of nine undergraduate students from PSU arrived at The IIS University, as part of the partnership between the two universities for academic interchange of ideas. The welcome included with the traditional tika-mol, after which the American students were greeted by the sixteen members of the Core Student Group the hosting university. This was followed by an interface with a few faculty members and the management. The Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Ashok Gupta, addressed the gathering by formally welcoming the visiting students. The students were also accorded a floral welcome by Rector and Registrar, Dr. Reekhi Gupta. The group escort with the American students, Ms. Sakshi Bhargava, a Doctoral student at Penn. State, thanked The IIS University for hosting them.

The next couple of days saw both student-groups participating in a host of interactive activities, which included tie and dye, pottery and sculpture, jewellery-making, mehendi-applying, classical Indian dance-class, yoga and adventure activities such as rappelling. In addition, both the Indian and American students collaborated and made audio-visual presentations on a varied number of topics of mutual concern. The presentations were highly interactive and informative and the topics ranged from Religion and Spirituality, Rajasthani Music, Natural Resources to Women in Cinema and their Objectification in the Media. In another session on Research and Career Prospects in the US, the group escort - Ms. Bhargava - addressed the Indian students on how to select and apply to American universities and the prerequisites for the same.

The American students also experienced home visits, which gave them an opportunity to meet the Indian host family and get to know the culture and lifestyle over dinner. They were also taken out for shopping and local sightseeing. On the final day of the interaction, a cultural performance entitled 'East Meets West' was put up by both the groups to bid farewell to the American students, some of whom also shared their experiences. The programme co-ordinator, Dr. Rimika Singhvi, presented mementoes to the PSU group and also extended an informal vote of thanks. Thereafter, the group departed back for Delhi.
